V. 'And whereas Difficulties and Inconveniencies attend the Method preſcribed by the ſaid Act for 'the Recovery of Sums of Money which have become due by reaſon of Rates, or otherwiſe, by virtue of 'the ſaid Acts;' be it enacted, That any Sum of Money which, by reaſon of any Rate, hath become due from any Owner or Owners of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, aſſeſſed by virtue of the ſaid Acts, and remains unpaid, or which ſhall become due from any Owner or Owners of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, which ſhall be aſſeſſed by virtue of this and the ſaid Acts, ſhall and may be paid by any one Occupier thereof, and ſhall and may be recovered of any one Occupier, in like Manner as the Rates are directed to be recovered by the ſaid firſt-mentioned Act; and ſuch Occupier ſhall be at Liberty, and is hereby impowered, to deduct and detain out of his or her Rent, ſuch Sum of Money as he or ſhe ſhall pay, as aforeſaid, unleſs there be an Agreement ſubſiſting between ſuch Occupier and his or her Landlord or Landlords to the contrary; and that any Sum of Money, which by reaſon of any Rate, or otherwiſe, by virtue of the ſaid Acts, hath or ſhall become due from, or hath been, or ſhall be, received or collected by any Perſon who hath happened to die, or who ſhall happen to die, before Payment of the ſame, ſhall be deemed to be due from, and ſhall be recoverable of, his or her Executor or Executors, Adminiſtrator or Adminiſtrators, in like Manner as it would have been of the deceaſed Perſon, in caſe he or ſhe had happened to have lived, or by Action of Debt to be brought in the Names of any two or more Commiſſioners, in purſuance of an Order to be made for that Purpoſe, at ſome publick Meeting of the Commiſſioners for executing this and the ſaid Acts.

Remedy to Creditors.

VI. 'And whereas a Sum of Money hath been borrowed by virtue of the ſaid Acts: And whereas the 'Remedy, by ordinary Courſe of Law, to compel the Payment of the Intereſt due on any Sums of Money, 'which have been, or may be, borrowed by virtue of the ſaid Acts, and the making of Rates for that Pur-'poſe may be very expenſive and inconvenient to the Creditors of whom the ſaid Sums have been or may 'be borrowed;' be it enacted, That ſo long as there ſhall be any Money remaining unpaid, which ſhall have been borrowed and taken up at Intereſt by virtue of the ſaid Acts, any ſeven of the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall have Power (any thing in either of the ſaid Acts to the contrary notwithſtanding) to make Orders for cauſing the yearly Rates for the general Purpoſes of this and the ſaid Acts to be made and collected: And that ſo long as there ſhall be any Money remaining unpaid, which ſhall have been borrowed and taken up at Intereſt by virtue of the ſaid Acts, and when and ſo often as any Year ſhall have expired, for which any Rate ſhall have been made for the general Purpoſes of this and the ſaid Acts, and any one of the ſaid Creditors ſhall requeſt any ſeven of the ſaid Commiſſioners to proceed to exerciſe the Powers veſted in them, for cauſing the ſaid yearly Rates to be made and collected, and the ſaid ſeven Commiſſioners ſhall refuſe or neglect ſo to proceed for the Space of one Month after they ſhall have been ſo requeſted, the ſaid Creditor ſhall be intitled to treble the full Coſts of obtaining, ſerving, and enforcing, a Writ of Mandamus, for compelling the ſaid ſeven Commiſſioners ſo to proceed, and ſhall, by Means of the Rule of Court, by which the ſaid Writ ſhall be granted, recover of the Perſons who ſhall appear to have neglected or refuſed to act as aforeſaid, the ſaid Coſts, together with treble the full Coſts of obtaining, ſerving, and enforcing, the ſaid Rule; and that the ſame Commiſſioners, under whoſe Hands any Order ſhall have been iſſued to any Collector or Collectors for collecting and receiving any yearly Rate under this and the ſaid Acts, ſhall provide, by ſome Order or Orders, (which ſhall be irreverſible) for the Payment of the Intereſt due on the ſaid Money once in every Year, the firſt Payment whereof ſhall be made within ſix Months after the paſſing of this Act; and the Treaſurer to the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Time being ſhall accordingly pay the ſame, purſuant to ſuch Order or Orders, without Fee or Reward from any Creditor who ſhall make Demand thereof: And in caſe the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall omit or refuſe to make and enforce ſuch Order or Orders, as aforeſaid, whereby there ſhall be a Failure of the Payment of the Intereſt due on any Sum of Money, which hath been, or may be, borrowed by virtue of the ſaid Acts, it ſhall and may be lawful for any Creditor who ſhall have been injured thereby to recover of any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall have iſſued ſuch Order under their Hands for collecting and receiving, as aforeſaid, and who ſhall have omitted or refuſed to make and enforce ſuch Order or Orders, as aforeſaid, for the Payment of the ſaid Intereſt, treble the Amount of the Intereſt due to ſuch Creditor, together with treble the full Coſts of Suit, by Action of Debt; and in caſe, at the Time of making Demand as aforeſaid, of the Intereſt due to any Creditor, as aforeſaid, there ſhall be by virtue of the ſaid yearly Rate in the Hands of the ſaid Treaſurer Money ſufficient to ſatisfy ſuch Demand, and the ſaid Treaſurer ſhall not comply therewith, or ſhall exact any Fee or Reward for complying therewith, it ſhall and may be lawful for any Creditor making ſuch Demand to recover of the ſaid Treaſurer treble the Amount of the Intereſt due to ſuch Creditor, together with treble the full Coſts of Suit by Action of Debt.

Part of Acts 10 and 12 Geo. 3. repealed.

VII. And be it further enacted, That ſo much of the ſaid Act, paſſed in the tenth Year of his ſaid Majeſty's Reign, as enables the ſaid Commiſſioners to contract for cleanſing the Streets, Lanes, and Paſſages, within the ſaid Borough, and alſo ſo much of the ſaid Act, paſſed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his ſaid Majeſty, as impowers the Commiſſioners to diſmiſs the Scavengers, or other Officers, appointed by the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council, of the ſaid Borough, for the Purpoſe of ſweeping, cleanſing, and carrying away, the Aſhes, Rubbiſh, Duſt, Dung, and Filth, from the ſaid Streets, Lanes, and Paſſages, and requires the ſaid Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council, to appoint others in the Stead of thoſe ſo diſmiſſed, be repealed: Provided nevertheleſs, That the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall have Power to order the ſaid Streets, Lanes, and Paſſages, to be watered ſo often as they ſhall think fit, and to defray the Expence thereof out of the Money to be raiſed by virtue and for the Purpoſes of this and the ſaid Acts.

Commiſſioners not perſonally anſwerable for Contracts, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That no Contract already made by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or which ſhall be made by them, for any of the Purpoſes of the ſaid Act, ſhall be binding upon the ſaid Commiſſioners perſonally as Individuals in their private Capacity, neither ſhall they be perſonally anſwerable for any Sum of Money borrowed and taken up at Intereſt under the Authority of the ſaid Acts, but only as Truſtees for carrying the ſame into Execution; and that Actions and Suits, in the Names of any two or more Commiſſioners under the ſaid Acts ſhall and may be maintained on Contracts, which have been, or ſhall be, made between the Commiſſioners under the ſaid Acts and any Perſon or Perſons for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Acts, any ſuch Action or Suit being commenced by virtue of an Order of ſuch Commiſſioners made for that Purpoſe at ſome publick Meeting; and all Sums of Money which ſhall be recovered by them in ſuch Action, ſhall be applied to the general Purpoſes of the ſaid Acts.

Commiſſioners indemnified out of the Rates.

IX. And be it enacted, That all Money expended by, or recovered againſt, any Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners, touching any Action or Proſecution by the ſaid Acts, directed to be brought by them, or touching the Defence of any Action, Proſecution, or Appeal, which hath been or ſhall be brought againſt them, or any other Perſon or Perſons employed by or under them, on account of any Rate, or any Matter or Thing done or omitted (except the omitting to cauſe Rates to be made and collected, and the Intereſt of Money borrowed to be paid as aforeſaid), in the Execution or Performance of his or their Office or Offices, Employment or Employments, under this or the ſaid Acts, or in purſuance of any Order or Orders of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, under the Authority of the ſaid Acts, (which Money ſhall not be recovered again by ſuch Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners, or other Perſon or Perſons, from any ſuch Defendant or Defendants, Plaintiff or Plaintiffs) ſhall be borne and defrayed out of the Money ariſing from the yearly Rates under this and the ſaid Acts.

Pavement of the Parade, &c.

XI. And be it enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Mayor and Juſtices of the ſaid Borough, at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be held in and for the ſaid Borough, as often as they ſhall ſee occaſion, to make Rules and Orders for the better governing and regulating of all Porters, Carters, and Draymen, and their Carriages, employed in carrying any Kind of Goods for Hire from the Quays to any Part of the ſaid Borough, and alſo from one Part of the ſaid Borough to another Part of the ſame: And the Juſtices of the ſaid Borough are hereby impowered and required, at their ſaid Seſſions, to licenſe all ſuch Hackney Chairs as ſhall be kept and uſed for Hire within the ſaid Borough, and ſhall and may fix and aſcertain ſuch Rates and Prices for the Carriage of the ſame, as to the ſaid Juſtices ſhall ſeem proper; and if any Hackney Chairman within the ſaid Borough ſhall refuſe, at any ſeaſonable Time, to go at, or ſhall exact more for his Hire than the Rate or Price fixed by the ſaid Juſtices, or ſhall keep or uſe any Chair for Hire within the ſaid Borough, unleſs licenſed as aforeſaid, he ſhall forfeit, for every ſuch Offence, a Sum not exceeding ten Shillings. 'XVI. And whereas the Appeal to the Quarter Seſſions for the County of Devon, concerning any 'Matters within the ſaid Acts greatly obſtructs the Execution thereof, and occaſions a Waſte of the 'Money raiſed for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Acts, as well as much Vexation and Expence to the Land 'Owners and Inhabitants within the ſaid Borough: And whereas the Appeal to the Quarter Seſſions 'for the Borough of Plymouth concerning the ſaid Matter at preſent is not ſufficiently remedial;' be it enacted, That ſo much of the ſaid Acts as gives a Power of appealing ſhall be repealed; and that if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall think himſelf, herſelf, or themſelves, aggrieved by any Rate hereafter to be made Power of Appeal to Quarter Seſſions for the County, by former Acts, repealed;

Preamble. Act 5 Geo. 3.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for laying certain Duties upon Gum Senega and Gum Arabic, imported into or exported from Great Britain, and for confining the Exportation of Gum Senega from Africa to Great Britain only, a Duty of one Pound ten Shillings was granted upon every Hundred Weight Avoirdupoise of Gum Senega, which should be exported from Great Britain to any Part beyond the Seas: And whereas it has been found by Experience, that the said Duty being so high, has induced illicit Traders to export great Quantities of such Gum privately out of this Kingdom into Foreign Parts, without paying any Duty for the same, and also to export such Gum clandestinely from Senegal, directly to Holland, and other Foreign Parts, contrary to the said recited Act, to the Prejudice of the fair Traders, and to the Loss and Detriment of the publick Revenue;' for Remedy whereof, may it please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the fifth Day of April, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, the said Duty of one Pound ten Shillings for every Hundred Weight of Gum Senega, granted by the said recited Act, shall cease, determine, and be no longer paid; and that, in Lieu and in Stead thereof, there shall be paid to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for every Hundred Weight Avoirdupoise of Gum Senega, which shall be exported from Great Britain to any Parts beyond the Seas, the sum of five Shillings, over and above any other Duty imposed thereon by any former Act of Parliament, and not repealed by this Act, and after those Rates for any greater or less Quantity of such Gum.

After 5 April, 1774, the Duty of 1 l. 10 s. per Cwt. on Gum Senega to cease; and in lieu thereof 5 s. per Cwt. over every other Duty imposed thereon, not repealed by this Act.

The Duty to be collected and applied as by the former Act.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duty by this Act granted, shall be raised, levied, collected, and recovered, by the same Rules and Regulations, and under the like Penalties and Forfeitures, and with the like Allowances, for Goods lost at Sea; and shall be paid and applied in such Manner, and to and for the same Purposes, as the Duty by this Act repealed was raised, levied, collected, recovered, paid, and applied, as fully, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the several Clauses, Powers, and Directions, relating thereto, were particularly repeated, and again enacted, in this present Act.

No Duty to be charged on Gum Senega exported from Great Britain to Ireland by Licence.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS Perſons in Cuſtody for Felonies, or other Crimes, or on Suſpicion thereof, or as Acceſſaries thereto, though no Bills of Indictment are afterwards preferred or found againſt them, or they are acquitted on their Trials, are nevertheleſs frequently detained for certain Fees to the Sheriffs, Gaolers, or Keepers of Priſons, in whoſe Cuſtody they happen to be, which is both oppreſſive and unjuſt:' For Remedy whereof, may it pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That every Priſoner who now is, or hereafter ſhall be, charged with any Felony or other Crime, or as an Acceſſary thereto, before any Court holding criminal Juriſdiction, within that Part of Great Britain called England and Wales, againſt whom no Bill of Indictment ſhall be found by the Grand Jury, or who, on his or her Trial, ſhall be acquitted, or who ſhall be diſcharged by Proclamation, for want of Proſecution, ſhall be immediately ſet at large in open Court, without the Payment of any Fee or Sum of Money to the Sheriff, Gaoler, or Keeper of the Gaol or Priſon, from whence he or ſhe ſhall be ſo diſcharged, and ſet at Liberty, for or in reſpect of ſuch Diſcharge.

The Treaſurers of Counties, &c. as are not aſſeſſed at large, on Receipt of a Certificate, ſigned by a Judge, &c. ſhall pay to ſuch Gaolers not exceeding 13s. 4d. in lieu of ſuch Fees.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, in Lieu of ſuch Fees ſo aboliſhed as aforeſaid, the Treaſurers, or other proper Officers of the ſeveral Counties, or of ſuch Diſtricts, Hundreds, Ridings, or Diviſions, of a County, as are not uſually aſſeſſed to the County at large, and of ſuch Cities, Towns Corporate, Cinque Ports, Liberties, Franchiſes, and Places, as do not pay to the Rates of the ſeveral Counties in which they are reſpectively ſituated, ſhall, on receiving a Certificate, ſigned by one or more Judge or Juſtice, before whom ſuch Priſoner ſhall have been diſcharged as aforeſaid, (which Certificate the Judge or Juſtice is hereby required to give), pay out of the Rates of ſuch County, or of ſuch Diſtrict, Hundred, Riding, or Diviſion, or out of the publick Stock of ſuch City, Town Corporate, Cinque

CAP. XXI.

An Act for more effectually carrying into Execution certain Propoſals, made by the moſt Noble Henry Duke of Buccleugh, the moſt Noble Charles Duke of Queenſberry and Dover, and others, for redeeming the Annuities granted by the Company of the Bank of Ayr, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, known under the Firm of Douglas, Heron, and Company.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS the moſt Noble Henry Duke of Buccleugh, the moſt Noble Charles Duke of Queenſberry and Dover, the Right Honourable Patrick Earl of Dumfries, Archibald Douglas of Douglas Eſquire, and a conſiderable Number of other Perſons, did, in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine, enter into a Partnerſhip, and ſubſcribe a Capital or Stock of one hundred and ſixty thouſand Pounds, or thereabouts, for carrying on the Buſineſs of Banking in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, under the Firm of Douglas, Heron, and Company, with Intention chiefly of improving Manufactures and Agriculture, by accommodating and extending the Credit of the Manufacturers and Farmers of that Part of the Kingdom: And whereas, by too great an Enlargement of the Credit given to the Manufacturers, Farmers, and others, the Partnerſhip did, in June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, come to be in great Want of Money to ſatisfy the Demands made upon them, owing to the Check given to Credit by the many Bankruptcies that happened at that Time in different Parts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Copartners in the ſaid Company, in order to raiſe Money to ſatisfy the Demands upon them, and thereby prevent the Bankruptcy of many, which their ſtopping Payment would neceſſarily have occaſioned, did raiſe, on granting Annuities for one and two Lives, the Sum of four hundred and fifty thouſand Pounds, and upwards, ſubject to a Power given by the Purchaſers of the ſaid Annuities, by verbal Agreement, for the ſaid Copartners to redeem the ſaid Annuities, by repaying the Purchaſe-money originally given for the ſaid Annuities, and one Half-year's Annuity more, as a Premium for ſuch Power of Redemption: And whereas the ſaid Copartners, in order to extricate their Affairs, and to enable them to redeem their ſaid Annuities, did, at a General Meeting, held on the twelfth Day of Auguſt, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, reſolve to diſcontinue the ſaid Banking Buſineſs, and nominated and appointed the Perſons following, being twelve of the Copartners, or any three of them, to be a Committee, with Power to do every Thing neceſſary for managing and winding up the Affairs of the Partnerſhip that could be done by the Reſolutions of a General Meeting, videlicet, The ſaid Henry Duke of Buccleugh, the ſaid Charles Duke of Queenſberry and Dover, Archibald Douglas of Douglas, John Hamilton of Sundrum, Alexander Ferguſon of Craigdarroch, Ilay Campbell, David Ferguſon, Alexander Wight, John Campbell, Andrew Croſbie, George Home, and Alexander Mackonochie, Eſquires: And whereas, at another Meeting of the ſaid Copartners, held on the twenty-firſt Day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, the Perſons following were added to the ſaid Committee, videlicet, Thomas Lockhart, Eſquire, Commiſſioner of Exciſe, and John Syme Writer to the Signet, and any five of the ſaid Committee were declared to be a Quorum, for executing all Buſineſs: And whereas the ſaid Committee, after much Conſideration of the moſt proper and effectual Method of redeeming the ſaid Annuities, finding it was impoſſible to raiſe any conſiderable Sum for that Purpoſe out of the Funds of the Partnerſhip, without bringing great Diſtreſs upon their Debtors, and injuring the Credit of that Part of the Kingdom where they chiefly reſided, did call a Meeting of the Annuitants together, on the ninth Day of February, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, and deliver to them, in Writing, the following Propoſals: Firſt, That his Grace the Duke of Buccleugh, the Duke of Queenſberry, Archibald Douglas Eſquire, and others, being the preſent Committee, choſen and appointed by a General Meeting of Proprietors at Edinburgh, to manage the Affairs of the ſaid Meſſieurs Douglas, Heron, and Company, do execute Bonds of fifty Pounds each, ſome few broken Sums excepted, to the Amount of the original Sums paid for the ſaid Annuities, with the Addition of half a Year's Purchaſe, or fifty Pounds more, on every Annuity of one hundred Pounds, and pro rata for every greater or leſſer Annuity, the ſaid Committee binding themſelves, and their Heirs and Executors, and having a Power to bind all the Partners of the ſaid Company, and their Heirs and Executors, to the due Performance of the Obligations in the ſaid Bonds: Second, That the ſaid Bonds of fifty Pounds each, carrying an Intereſt of five Pounds per hundred Pounds, be made payable to a Perſon named, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, by Indorſement, and rendered to all Intents and Purpoſes negotiable and vendable, like Eaſt India Bonds, Navy, and Exchequer Bills, or any Effects of a ſimilar Nature: Third, That as the Principal of the ſaid Bonds, the Premium of Redemption included, is eſtimated nearly at four hundred and eighty thouſand Pounds, the Intereſt at five per Centum thereon is twenty-four thouſand Pounds per Annum, it is further propoſed, that ſpecifick Eſtates in Land unentailed in Scotland, to the clear Amount in Rent of thirty-two thouſand Pounds per Annum, or upwards, be ſubjected, by Mortgage, as a corroborative Security for the Diſcharge of the Principal and Intereſt of the ſaid Bonds; that is to ſay, Of the Intereſt every Half-year in London; and of the Principal by four Inſtalments, videlicet, One fourth Part, as nearly as the Whole may be conveniently divided, at Mid- ſummer,

'ſummer, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight; one fourth Part at Midſummer, one thouſand 'ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine; one fourth Part at Midſummer, one thouſand ſeven hundred and 'eighty; and the laſt, whether ſomething more or leſs than a Fourth, at Midſummer, one thouſand ſeven 'hundred and eighty-two: Fourth, That the Care of inveſtigating the Titles and Values of the ſaid 'Eſtates in Lands, and of executing the Securities in due Form, be left to James Montgomery Eſquire, 'Lord Advocate, and Henry Dundas Eſquire, Solicitor General, of Scotland, with the Approbation, and 'under the Inſpection, of Alexander Wedderburn Eſquire, Solicitor General of England, and Joſeph 'Banks, of Lincoln's Inn, Eſquire, upon the recent Precedent of a ſimilar Tranſaction, when a Loan of 'fourſcore thouſand Pounds was furniſhed to the ſaid Company on the Security of other landed Eſtates, 'under the Care, and by the Advice, of the ſame learned Gentlemen: Fifth, That after the ſaid landed 'Eſtates, in the preſent Inſtance, to the Amount, in Rent, of thirty-two thouſand Pounds per Annum, or 'ſo much thereof as ſhall be adequate to the Claim of ſuch Annuitants as ſhall ſubſcribe their Aſſent to theſe 'Propoſals, ſhall have been approved of by the ſaid four learned Gentlemen, the Mortgage Deeds, called 'Heritable Bonds in Scotland, ſhall be made out and aſſigned to Sir William Henry Aſhhurſt, one of the Judges 'of his Majeſty's Court of King's Bench, the ſaid Lord Advocate and Solicitor General of Scotland, the 'ſaid Alexander Wedderburn Solicitor General of England, Joſeph Banks, Richard Glover, and Alexander 'Mackonochie, Eſquires, or to any other Perſons in Scotland or England, in Number more or leſs, at the 'Election of the Annuitants themſelves, for the ſpecial Purpoſe of being Truſtees, and holding the ſaid 'Eſtates of thirty-two thouſand Pounds clear Rent, in Behalf of the Annuitants, for the full and due Per-'formance of the Obligations in the ſaid Bonds, which are to be ſubſtituted in lieu of the Annuities by the 'ſaid Committee of Meſſieurs Douglas, Heron, and Company: Sixth, That in caſe the ſaid Annuitants, 'or any Number of them, ſhall accept of theſe Offers, and of the before-named ſeven Perſons as Truſtees 'for all or ſuch Proportion of the ſaid Mortgages as ſhall be adequate to the Claim of ſuch Number as ſhall 'ſubſcribe their Aſſent, it is further provided and earneſtly deſired, that they will appoint three or five Gen-'tlemen, of their own Body, to inſpect all the Proceedings relative to this Tranſaction, and to report the 'ſame at a publick Meeting to be called by the Inſpectors: Seventh, That when, with the Approbation 'and Concurrence of the ſaid Inſpectors, all the Premiſes above mentioned ſhall have paſſed the regular 'Forms, and the Holders of Annuities ſhall be put in Poſſeſſion of Bonds to the Amount of ſeven hundred 'and fifty Pounds for an Annuity of one hundred Pounds on one Life, and eight hundred and fifty Pounds 'for an Annuity of one hundred Pounds on two Lives, and pro rata for every greater or leſſer Annuity; 'and when they ſhall have received in Money whatever is accrued and due for the Annuities down to the 'Date of the new Bonds; that then the old Bonds and Judgments, or other Securities, by which they 'claimed their ſaid Annuities, ſhall be given up, and Satisfaction acknowledged on the ſaid Judgments: 'Eighth, That in caſe any of the Annuitants, who ſhall ſign their Aſſent to theſe Propoſals, ſhould die 'before the final Execution of the ſame, all the Benefit thereof ſhall remain to their Heirs and Executors, 'as fully and effectually as if the original Annuitants were actually alive; but if the ſaid Propoſals ſhould 'not be made good, in that Caſe the preſent Annuitants ſhall remain in the ſame State of Annuitants they 'now are: Ninth, That Parliament ſhall be applied to for an Act, under whoſe Sanction and Authority 'the Bonds may be lawfully iſſued: And whereas, the Annuitants preſent at the ſaid Meeting, having 'taken the ſaid Propoſals into Conſideration, did unanimouſly agree to the ſame, and the following Memo-'randum was then ſubſcribed by many of the ſaid Annuitants preſent, and hath ſince been ſubſcribed by 'many others who were not then preſent; videlicet, London, Ninth February, one thouſand ſeven hundred 'and ſeventy-four. We underwritten Purchaſers of Annuities from Meſſieurs Douglas, Heron, and Company, 'conſent and agree to the within Propoſals for the Redemption of the ſame, and approve of the Truſtees named in 'the fifth Article; and, in Conformity with the Sixth, appoint Sir Thomas Frankland Baronet, Martin Bladen 'Hawke Eſquire, George Dempſter Eſquire, Peregrine Cuſt Eſquire, and Daniel Giles Eſquire, to 'be our Inſpectors over all Proceedings relative to the Execution of the ſaid Propoſal: And whereas it would 'greatly facilitate the redeeming the ſaid Annuities, and ſave much Trouble and Expence to the ſaid Co-'partners, if the Committee appointed for ſettling the Affairs of the ſaid Copartnerſhip, or any five or 'more of them, were enabled to iſſue Bonds for ſecuring the Payment to the reſpective Annuitants of the 'principal Money and Intereſt, according to the ſaid Propoſals, or to raiſe Money thereon for the Redemp-'tion of the ſaid Annuities, and to make the ſaid Bonds negotiable by Indorſement thereon; but it being 'apprehended that the ſame cannot be rendered effectual to anſwer the Intention of the Parties, or the ſaid 'Propoſals carried into Execution, without the Aid and Authority of Parliament;' may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Henry Duke of Buccleugh, Charles Duke of Queenſberry and Dover, Archibald Douglas of Douglas Eſquire, John Hamilton of Sundrum, Alexander Ferguſon of Craigdarroch, Ilay Campbell, David Ferguſon, Alexander Wight, John Campbell, Andrew Croſbie, George Home, Alexander Mackonochie, Thomas Lockhart, and John Syme, or any five of them (of which the ſaid Henry Duke of Buccleugh, Charles Duke of Queenſberry and Dover, and Archibald Douglas of Douglas Eſquire, or any two of them, or the Survivor of them, ſhall be three, two, or one, as the Caſe may happen), to execute and iſſue Bonds for the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the Whole five hundred thouſand Pounds, for redeeming the Annuities ſo granted by the Partnerſhip of Douglas, Heron, and Company, as aforeſaid, or for raiſing Money thereon for redeeming the ſaid Annuities, or any Part thereof; each of which ſaid Bonds ſhall not be for ſecuring leſs than fifty Pounds and Intereſt, and ſhall be conceived in the following Words, or Words to the like Effect; (that is to ſay,) and by dedicating himself to the Service of his Country at the Beginning of the late War; upon which Occasion he raised, in a very short Time, a large Body of Men, and commanded a Regiment composed of them, with which he served meritoriously during the Course of it; and was the first who offered to set that Example, which, in its Consequences, proved advantageous to the State, by calling forth, from a Corner of the Kingdom, many thousand Soldiers, whose Efforts to demonstrate their Zeal and Attachment to his Majesty's Royal Person and Government contributed to the Glory and Success of that War: And whereas the said Simon Fraser hath, in the Course of his Service, attained the Rank of Major General in his Majesty's Army, and since the Peace hath been employed, by his Majesty's Command, in the Service of a Power whose Alliance this Country hath always deemed important: By all which his Case appears to be peculiarly distinguished:' May it therefore please your Majesty (upon the humble Petition of the said Major General Simon Fraser), that it may be enacted; And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Powers given to the Commiſſioners of Sewers by the ſaid Act of the ſixteenth and ſeventeenth Years of his late Majeſty King Charles the Second, to ſhut down the Sluice at Podehole aforeſaid, and to ſtop the ſaid Drain called Vernat's Drain for the Space of two Months in every Year, in order to drain the Lands in Pinchbeck and Spalding, ſhall, from and immediately after the ſaid Adventurers ſhall have opened and ſcoured the ſaid Drain called Vernat's Drain, and laid down the Floor, and erected the ſaid Sea Sluice, and alſo the ſaid Sluice at Podehole, in Manner aforeſaid, ceaſe and determine; and it ſhall not be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners hereafter to ſtop the Sluice and Doors to be ſet down at Podehole aforeſaid for any greater Space of Time than twenty-eight Days in the Courſe of any one Year, to be reckoned from the firſt Day of January in one Year to the firſt Day of January in the ſucceeding Year; and that the ſaid Sluice and Doors ſhall not at any Time be ſtopped by the ſaid Commiſſioners for more than three ſucceſſive Days together, within the Space of fourteen Days, in order that there ſhall always be reſerved to the ſaid Adventurers a clear Interval of eleven Days between the different Times of ſetting down the ſaid Sluice and Doors as aforeſaid, for the running or carrying off the Fen Waters; any Thing contained in the ſaid recited Act of the ſixteenth and ſeventeenth Years of King Charles the Second, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary hereof in any-wiſe notwithſtanding.

Power of Commiſſioners of Sewers, reſpecting the ſhutting Podehole Sluice, &c. altered.

XI. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners of Sewers, at any of their Courts to be holden for the Parts of Holland, and they are hereby authoriſed and impowered, to order and direct any Tunnel or Tunnels to be laid through the Bank or Banks of the ſaid Drain called Vernat's Drain, for the Purpoſe and Conveniency of draining the Lands adjoining upon the ſaid Drain, or for the taking Water out of the ſaid Drain into the ſaid Lands, at ſuch Time and Times, and in ſuch Manner, as they ſhall think fit; but no Tunnel or Tunnels ſhall be laid through the ſaid Bank or Banks of the ſaid Drain by the Owner or Occupier of any Lands adjoining thereto, without the Leave or Conſent of the Commiſſioners of Sewers; and in caſe any ſuch Owner or Occupier, having ſuch Leave or Conſent, ſhall, by laying any Tunnel or Tunnels through the ſaid Banks, do any Injury or Damage to the ſaid Banks, the Commiſſioners of Sewers are hereby required, at ſome of their Courts to be holden for the Parts of Holland, as aforeſaid, to order the ſame to be made good, at the Expence of ſuch Owner or Occupier.

Commiſſioners of Sewers may order Tunnels to be made in the Banks, &c.

XII. Provided always, That the ſaid Adventurers, their Heirs or Aſſigns, ſhall not be anſwerable for any Damage that may ariſe to any Lands, either from ſuch Tunnels being laid through ſuch Banks as aforeſaid, with or without ſuch Leave as aforeſaid, or from any Neglect in the Court of Sewers to order ſuch Bank or Banks to be repaired after ſuch Tunnels ſhall be laid down as aforeſaid; any Thing contained in the ſaid recited Act or Acts, or any of them, or in this preſent Act, to the contrary hereof in any-wiſe notwithſtanding.

Adventurers not to be anſwerable for Damages occaſioned by Tunnels, &c.

'XIII. And whereas by Reaſon of the Narrowneſs of the Arches of Surfleet Bridge, and Croſs Gate Bridge 'in Pinchbeck, over the River Glen, the Waters coming down the ſaid River are greatly obſtructed in their 'Courſe,' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Adventurers ſhall, and they are hereby authoriſed and required, within twelve calendar Months from the Day of the paſſing this Act, to take down the ſaid Surfleet Bridge, and, within the Time aforeſaid, to build another good and ſufficient Bridge in the Stead thereof, of not leſs Capacity and Dimenſions than the preſent Bridge in Pinchbeck aforeſaid, called Money Bridge; and the ſaid Adventurers are hereby alſo required to enlarge the ſaid Bridge called Croſs Gate Bridge to a Water-way of thirty Feet within the Space of two calendar Months from the Time Surfleet Bridge ſhall be rebuilt as aforeſaid.

Adventurers may pull down and rebuild Surfleet and Croſs-gate Bridges.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Adventurers ſhall, and they are hereby required to cauſe the Drain called Gravel Drain to be properly ſcoured and cleanſed, and the Bank thereof, on the Side next the ſaid Fens, to be properly ſtrengthened; and to make and continue the ſaid Drain and Bank to the North-eaſt Corner of a certain Place called Swine's Meadow; and alſo to make a ſtrong and ſufficient Dam at the South End of the ſaid Drain, to convey the Water Northward into the Counter Waſh; and alſo thoroughly repair and enlarge the South Bank of the Counter Drain, and widen and deepen the ſaid Counter Drain from the End of Gravel Drain to Podehole Sluice aforeſaid, for the carrying off and conveying the upland Waters along Vernat's Drain to the Sea, without overflowing the ſaid Fens.

Gravel Drain, &c. to be ſcoured.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Adventurers ſhall, and are hereby required, in the firſt place, to cauſe the ſaid Sluice, called The Sea Sluice, and the Sluice called Podehole Sluice, to be built and opened, and the new Cut, and Vernat's Drain, to be made and widened, from the ſaid Sea Sluice to Podehole Sluice, as herein-before directed; and until ſuch Time that ſuch Works ſhall have been completed, it ſhall not be lawful for the ſaid Adventurers to do or perform the Works herein-before directed to be done or performed upon the Drain called Gravel Drain, and the Bank thereof, to Swine's Meadow, the Dam to be made at the South End of the ſaid Drain, the South Bank of the Counter

The Sea Sluice and Podehole Sluice, in the firſt place, to be made and widened.

Drain, and the ſaid Counter Drain, from the End of Gravel Drain to Podehole Sluice, the Drain called Langtoft Roft, the Drain called North Drove Dike, the Drain called Black Dike Roft, the Drain called South Drove Dike, the Drain called The Eighteen Feet Drain, or any of them; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary hereof notwithſtanding.

The Adventurers may regulate Tunnels in the North Weſt Side of the Rivers Welland and Glen.

XVI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, the Owner or Owners of any Tunnel or Tunnels now laid, or which ſhall hereafter be laid, through any of the Banks called Deeping Bank, Barſton Bank, the Counter Bank, and Gravel Drain Bank, when extended to Swine's Meadow Corner, is, and are hereby required, on or before the thirtieth Day of September in every Year, well and ſufficiently to dam, ſtop, or make up, with Dove-tail or other Piles, all and every ſuch Tunnel and Tunnels already made, or which may hereafter be made, for conveying Water into the ſaid Fens, or any of them: And in caſe the Owner or Owners of ſuch Tunnel or Tunnels, or his or their Tenant or Tenants, ſhall refuſe or neglect effectually to dam and ſtop ſuch Tunnel or Tunnels on or before the Time aforeſaid, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Adventurers, their Servants or Agents, and they are hereby authoriſed and impowered, immediately after the firſt Day of October in every Year, well and ſufficiently to dam, ſtop, and make up, with Dove-tail or other Piles, in Manner before-mentioned, all and every ſuch Tunnel or Tunnels made, or to be made, for conveying Water into the ſaid Fens, or any of them, as aforeſaid, at the Coſts and Charges of the Owner or Owners thereof, or his, her, or their Tenant or Tenants, ſo neglecting to ſtop and ſecure the ſame; and the ſaid Tunnel or Tunnels, when dammed or ſtopped up as aforeſaid, ſhall ſo remain till the firſt Day of May then next following: And in caſe any ſuch Owner or Owners, Tenant or Tenants, ſhall refuſe or neglect, for the Space of twenty-eight Days, to pay the Expences of the ſame, after Demand being made by the Agent or Agents of the ſaid Adventurers, it ſhall then be lawful to and for the ſaid Adventurers, by an Order made at their General Annual Meeting, to take up and entirely remove the ſaid Tunnel or Tunnels, and to ſell ſo much of the Materials thereof as will defray the Expences attending the taking up and removing the ſame.

Proprietors of Lands, Guardians, &c. may borrow Money for the Purpoſes of this Act.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for all Owners or Proprietors of taxable Lands, being Tenants in Tail, or for Life or Lives only, or having any other limited Eſtate or Eſtates therein, and for the Huſbands of all Femes-covert, and all other Perſons being or acting as Truſtees of charitable and other Uſes, Guardians, Committees, or Attornies, to any Minors, Idiots, Lunaticks, or Perſons beyond the Seas, or under any other Incapacity or Diſability whatſoever, intitled to any Share or Part of the ſaid taxable Lands, and they, and each and every of them for the Time being, are hereby reſpectively authoriſed, enabled, and impowered, to borrow any Sum or Sums of Money which ſhall be annually aſſeſſed on ſuch Lands, not exceeding the Sum of forty Shillings per Acre for every Acre of their ſaid Lands; which Money, when borrowed, ſhall be applied for the Purpoſes of this Act, and not otherwiſe; and for the Repayment of all ſuch Money, with the Intereſt thereof, to grant, mortgage, leaſe, or demiſe, their reſpective Parts or Shares in the ſaid taxable Lands, to the Uſe of the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall advance and lend ſuch Money, his, her, and their reſpective Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, either in Fee-ſimple or for any Term or Terms of Years; ſo as ſuch Grants, Mortgages, Leaſes, or Demiſes, be reſpectively made with a Proviſo or Condition to ceaſe and be void, or with an expreſs Truſt to be ſurrendered, when the Sum or Sums of Money thereby ſecured, and the Intereſt thereof, ſhall be fully paid and ſatisfied, and ſo as in every ſuch Grant, Mortgage, Leaſe, or Demiſe, which ſhall be made as aforeſaid, there be contained a Covenant to pay and keep down the Intereſt of the Money thereby ſecured, ſo that the Perſon intitled to the Premiſes in Reverſion or Remainder ſhall not be liable to the Payment of any larger Arrear of Intereſt than for one Year preceding the Time that the Title to ſuch Poſſeſſion ſhall have commenced; and every ſuch Grant, Mortgage, Leaſe, or Demiſe, which ſhall be made as aforeſaid, ſhall be good and valid in Law to all Intents and Purpoſes.

The Times of holding annual Meetings.

'XVIII. And whereas by the ſaid Act of the twenty-ſecond of King Charles the Second, the Adventurers 'are reſtrained from holding their publick annual Meetings for aſſeſſing and raiſing the Acre Tax at any 'Time in the Year except on the Thurſday next after the ſecond Sunday in April, and it would be more con-'venient to many of the ſaid Adventurers if their annual Meetings were to be holden for the future upon the 'laſt Thurſday in April;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, ſo much of the ſaid Act as directs the ſaid Adventurers to meet on the Thurſday next after the ſecond Sunday in April, in every Year, ſhall be, and is hereby repealed; and that it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Adventurers, or any three or more of them, to meet at the Town of Spalding, for the Purpoſe of aſſeſſing and raiſing the Acre Tax as aforeſaid, directed to be aſſeſſed and raiſed by virtue of the ſaid Act, upon the laſt Thurſday in April in every Year, and on no other Day; any Thing contained in the ſaid Act of the twenty-ſecond Year of King Charles the Second to the contrary hereof notwithſtanding.

Days for paying the Taxes laid by the Adventurers.

'XIX. And whereas the Time fixed by the ſaid laſt-mentioned Act for Payment of the Rates or Taxes 'directed to be paid for draining the ſaid Fens is too late in the Year for completing the Works neceſſary to 'be done in that Year for which ſuch Rates or Taxes are raiſed, and it would be greatly for the Benefit of 'the Adventurers if the Money to be raiſed by the ſaid Rates or Taxes was raiſed and paid at two ſeparate 'Payments;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the paſſing of this Act the Rates or Taxes directed to be laid and raiſed by all or any of the ſaid former Acts, and by this preſent Act, for the Purpoſe of draining and improving the ſaid Fen Lands, ſhall be laid and made as herein-after directed, and not otherwiſe; (that is to ſay), All ſuch Rates and Taxes as ſhall be laid on the ſaid taxable Lands in the ſaid Fens, at the annual Meetings of the ſaid Adventurers, which ſhall be held for that Purpoſe on the ſaid laſt Thurſday in April, in every Year, at the Town of Spalding, ſhall be paid by the reſpective Owners of the ſaid Lands or Grounds to the Treaſurer, or Deputy Treaſurer, or Receiver, to the ſaid Adventurers for the Time being, by two equal Payments, on the twenty-ſecond Day of May, and the eleventh Day of November, in every Year; the firſt Payment whereof ſhall be made on the twenty-ſecond Day of May next after the Day on which ſuch Rates and Taxes are laid; and in caſe the ſaid Owners or Proprietors ſhall neglect or refuſe to pay the ſame on the reſpective Days or Times before limited for Payment thereof, or within ten Days after, every ſuch Perſon ſo neglecting or refuſing ſhall be ſubject and liable to the ſame Penalties and Forfeitures, and the ſaid taxable Lands to the like Seizures and Sequeſtrations as they are ſeverally ſubject and liable to by any former Act or Acts.

Saving the Rights of the Commiſſioners of Sewers.

XX. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, ſhall not extend to repeal, invalidate, leſſen, or diminiſh, alter, or take away, any of the Rights, Powers, and Authorities of any Perſon or Perſons, or any of the Rights, Powers, and Authorities of the Commiſſioners of Sewers for the County of Lincoln reſpectively, veſted in them, or either of them, by force and virtue of the ſaid recited Act or Acts, or either of them (except certain Rights, Powers, and Authorities which were given to the Commiſſioners of Sewers by the ſaid Act of the ſixteenth and ſeventeenth of his late Majeſty King Charles the Second, over the Sluice at Podehole, and over Vernat's Drain, which are meant to be varied, altered, and abridged, as herein-before is particularly mentioned); but that all ſuch reſpective Rights, Powers, and Authorities, of any Perſon or Perſons, and Commiſſioners of Sewers, together with every Clauſe, Article, Sentence, Penalty, Matter, and Thing, ſeverally contained in the ſaid recited Act or Acts, or either of them (except as before is excepted), ſhall remain, continue, and be in as full Force and Virtue as if this Act had not been made.

Prejudicing of the Works made for improving certain Fen Lands lying between Boſton Haven and Bourn, how to be prevented.

XXI. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend to prejudice, obſtruct, prevent, or defeat, any of the Works made, or to be made, in purſuance of an Act, made in the fifth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, (intituled, An Act for draining and improving certain low Marſh and Fen Lands, lying between Boſton Haven and Bourn, in the Parts of Keſteven and Holland, in the County of Lincoln,) and in purſuance of an Act, made in the tenth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, (for amending and rendering more effectual the ſaid Act made in the fifth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign,) or to impower the Commiſſioners acting by virtue of this Act to intermeddle with, or to invalidate, leſſen, alter, or take away, any of the Rights, Powers, or Authorities, which by the ſaid two laſt-mentioned Acts were veſted in all or any of the Commiſſioners acting under the ſaid Acts, but that the ſame ſhall be and continue as fully, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if this Act had never been made; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any-wiſe notwithſtanding.

Every Perſon ſhall account upon Oath for the Money received, &c. if thereunto required.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That every Perſon who ſhall be employed by the ſaid Adventurers in the Care, Direction, Execution, or Management, of the ſaid Works, or any of them, ſhall, at any Meeting (if required), give in his Accounts upon Oath touching all Money received and expended by him, in, about, or concerning ſuch Works (which Oath the ſaid Adventurers, or any three of them, are hereby impowered to adminiſter); and that the ſaid Adventurers may diſplace any ſuch Perſon or Perſons, if they ſhall then judge proper.

Expences of the Act how to be paid.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That the Charges and Expences incurred in relation to the obtaining and paſſing this Act ſhall be paid, borne, and defrayed, by the ſaid Adventurers out of any Money now in their Hands, or which ſhall hereafter come to their Hands by virtue or in purſuance of any former Act or Acts, or of this Act.

Perſons aggrieved may appeal to the Quarter Seſſions.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall think himſelf or herſelf aggrieved by any Thing done in purſuance of the ſaid former Acts, or of this Act, and for which no particular Method of Relief hath been already appointed, ſuch Perſon may appeal to the Juſtices of the Peace, at their next General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be holden in and for the Diviſion or Diſtrict in the ſaid County where ſuch Cauſe of Complaint or Diſpute ſhall ariſe or happen; or in caſe the Cauſe of Complaint ſhall ariſe within twenty-one Days next before ſuch General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, then to the ſecond General Quarter Seſſions to be held for the ſaid Diviſion or Diſtrict; ſuch Appellant firſt giving, or cauſing to be given, twenty-one Days Notice at the leaſt, in Writing, of his or her Intention to bring ſuch Appeal, and of the Matter thereof, to the ſaid Adventurers, or their Agent, and within four Days after ſuch Notice entering into a Recognizance before ſome Juſtice of the Peace for the ſaid Diviſion or Diſtrict, with two ſufficient Sureties conditioned to try ſuch Appeal, and abide by the Order of, and to pay ſuch Coſts as ſhall be awarded by the Juſtices at the ſaid Quarter Seſſions to be held for the ſaid Diviſion or Diſtrict; and the ſaid Juſtices, at the ſaid Seſſions, upon due Proof of ſuch Notice being given, and of the entering into ſuch Recognizance as aforeſaid, ſhall hear and finally determine the Cauſes and Matters of ſuch Appeal in a ſummary Way, and award ſuch Coſts to the Parties appealing or appealed againſt as they the ſaid Juſtices ſhall think proper; and the Determination of ſuch Quarter Seſſions ſhall be final, binding, and concluſive, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

Limitation of Actions.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Action or Suit ſhall be brought or commenced againſt the ſaid Adventurers, or any Perſon or Perſons, for any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, until twenty-one Days Notice ſhall be thereof given to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, or to the ſaid Adventurers or their Agents, or after ſufficient Satisfaction, or a Tender thereof hath been made to the Party or Parties aggrieved, or after ſix Calendar Months next after the Fact committed; and every ſuch Action or Suit ſhall be laid or brought in the ſaid County of Lincoln, and not elſewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants, in every ſuch Action or Suit, ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, Not guilty, and give this Act, and the ſpecial Matter, in Evidence, at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the ſame was done in purſuance and by the Authority of this Act: And if the ſame ſhall appear to be ſo done, or that ſuch Action or Suit ſhall be brought before twenty-one Days Notice ſhall be thereof given as aforeſaid, or after a ſufficient Satisfaction made or tendered as aforeſaid, or after the Time limited for bringing the ſame as aforeſaid, or ſhall be brought in any other County than as aforeſaid, that then the Jury ſhall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and, upon ſuch Verdict, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall be nonſuited, or diſcontinue his, her, or their Action or Suit; or if, upon Demurrer, Judgment ſhall be given againſt the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, then the Defendant or Defendants ſhall recover treble Coſts, and have ſuch Remedy for the ſame as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have in any other Caſes by Law; nor ſhall any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall offend againſt this Act be ſued or proſecuted after the Expiration of ſix Calendar Months from the Time of the Offence committed.

General Iſſue,

Treble Coſts;

Publick Act. XXVI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall be deemed, adjudged, and taken to be a Publick Act; and ſhall be judicially taken Notice of as ſuch by all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons, without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

CAP. XXIV.

An Act for paving, repairing, lighting, and watching, the Streets, and other publick Paſſages and Places within that Part of the Pariſh of Clerkenwell called Saint James's, and removing Obſtructions and Annoyances therein; for widening the Paſſage from Clerkenwell Green to the Pariſh Church; and for watching and lighting certain Highways within the ſaid Pariſh.

CAP. XXV.

An Act for the more effectual preventing Frauds, and Embezzlements, by Perſons employed in the Woollen Manufactory.

Preamble. 'WHEREAS Frauds are frequently committed, and Embezzlements made, by Perſons employed 'in the Woollen Manufactory, particularly by their ſecreting, ſelling, or otherwiſe illegally diſ-'poſing of, the working Tools and Materials they are intruſted with, by the Weavers taking the Biers 'out of the Chains, and withholding Part of the Woof or Abb Yarn delivered to them, and by the 'Pickers, Scribblers, and Spinners, embezzling Part of the Wool and Yarn intruſted to them, and alſo 'by damping, ſteaming, and watering, the Reſidue, in order to make up the Deficiency in Weight, oc-'ſioned by ſuch Embezzlements, and alſo by taking off, picking, or cutting out the Liſt, Forrel, or other 'Marks, of any Piece or Pieces of Cloth, by Means whereof the Clothiers ſuſtain great Damage and 'Loſs: And whereas the Abuſes committed in the Clothing Manufacture by Perſons carrying, collecting, 'buying, and receiving, from the Labourers employed in that Manufacture, Ends of Yarn, Wefts, 'Thrumbs, Short Yarn, and other Refuſe of Cloth, Drugget, and other Woollen Goods, and Goods 'mixed with Wool, have been found very detrimental to the ſaid Manufactures; and the ſaid Frauds and 'Abuſes are frequently carried on and committed ſo ſecretly, that the Laws now in being are by no 'Means ſufficient to prevent the ſame, whereby Perſons employed in the ſaid Manufacture are tempted 'and encouraged to embezzle, purloin, ſecrete, ſell, and detain, the Goods and Materials with which they 'are intruſted by the Clothiers, and other Woollen Manufacturers, ſo that the Cloth made comes out de-'fective in the Subſtance, Perfection, and Excellence, intended by the Clothier, to the Diſcredit of the Ma-'nufacturer, and Injury of the Publick: And whereas it is apprehended ſuch Frauds and Embezzlements 'would not be ſo frequent if the Detection and Puniſhment of the ſaid Offences were made more eaſy 'and certain:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That if any Picker, Scribbler, Spinner, or Weaver, or other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, who ſhall be anyways employed in or about the making or manufacturing of Woollen Cloth, or in preparing Materials for that Purpoſe, ſhall not return all working Tools or Implements, Wool, Yarn, Chain, Woof, or Abb, delivered out to be worked up and manufactured, and all ſuch Materials, as aforeſaid, wherewith he, ſhe, or they, ſhall be intruſted, or give a ſatisfactory Account touching the ſame reſpectively, to his, her, or their Employer, when thereunto required by the Perſon or Perſons by whom he, ſhe, or they, ſhall have been ſo intruſted, or by his, her, or their known Clerk or Servant, or ſhall fraudulently ſteam, damp, or water the Wool or Yarn delivered to him, her, or them, to be worked up; or if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall take off, cut, or pick out, the Liſt, Forrel, or other Mark, of any Piece of Cloth, and ſhall be convicted of any ſuch Offence before ſome Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace for the County, Diviſion, Liberty, or Place, where the Perſon or Perſons ſo offending ſhall reſide, either by the Confeſſion of the Party or Parties, or by the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes; every ſuch Perſon ſo convicted ſhall be committed to the Houſe of Correction for the Space of one Calendar Month.

Perſons employed in the Woollen Manufacture, not returning Implements and Materials to their Employers; or ſhall cut or pick off the Liſt or Mark of Cloth, on Conviction before a Juſtice, to be commited for one Calendar Month.

II. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſo employed, and who ſhall have been entruſted with any Tools, Implements, Wool, Yarn, Chain, Woof, or Abb, or other Materials as aforeſaid, ſhall not have delivered or accounted for the ſame, ſhall abſcond, or cannot be found, or ſhall ſell, or otherwiſe diſpoſe of the ſame, or any Part thereof; or if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall fraudulently buy or receive ſuch Tools, Implements, or Materials, of any Perſon ſo employed or entruſted; or if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be ſuſpected of, and charged on, ſuch Suſpicion with having embezzled and kept back, by means of fraudulently damping, ſteaming, or watering, the Wool and Yarn delivered out to him, her, or them; or with having ſold, bought, or otherwiſe received the ſame, or any Part thereof, as aforeſaid, and Oath ſhall be made thereof reſpectively before one of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the County, Diviſion, Liberty, or Place, where any ſuch Offence was committed; ſuch Juſtice ſhall thereupon iſſue his Warrant to any Conſtable or Conſtables, or other Peace Officer or Peace Officers, to enter into and ſearch, in the Day-time, the Place of Dwelling or Reſidence of ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo offending, and alſo ſuch other Houſe or Place, Houſes or Places, of which the Clothier, Clerk, or Servant, as aforeſaid, ſhall make Oath that he, ſhe, or they, have juſt Cauſe to ſuſpect, it appearing to the ſaid Juſtice to be reaſonable Suſpicion that the ſaid working Tools, or the ſaid Materials, or ſome Part or Parts thereof, to have been embezzled or kept back, ſold, bought, or received, as aforeſaid, may be ſecreted

Perſons abſconding and ſelling Materials; or fraudulently buying or receiving ſuch Tools;

Juſtices may iſſue Wrrrants to Conſtables to ſearch, ſecreted and lodged: And if, upon Search, any of the ſaid working Tools, Wool, Yarn, Chain, Woof, or Abb, or any Cloth with the Liſt, Forrel, or other Marks, taken off, cut, or picked out, ſhall be found, the ſaid Conſtable or Conſtables, Peace Officer or Peace Officers, ſhall ſeize the ſame, and apprehend the Perſon or Perſons in whoſe Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion the ſame ſhall be found, and bring him, her, or them, before the ſame, or ſome other of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the County, Diviſion, Liberty, or Place aforeſaid; and unleſs ſuch Perſon or Perſons, in whoſe Cuſtody the ſame ſhall be found, can give a good Account how he, ſhe, or they, came by the ſame, to the Satisfaction of ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices; then, and in ſuch Caſe, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be thereof convicted, and ſuffer ſuch Puniſhment as is herein-before directed to be inflicted on Perſons not returning the Tools or Materials as aforeſaid; and all ſuch Tools, Wool, Yarn, Chain, Woof, or Abb, or ſuch Cloth as aforeſaid, ſo ſeized, and not accounted for as aforeſaid, ſhall, upon ſuch Conviction, be delivered over to the Churchwardens or Overſeers of the Poor of the Pariſh where the ſame were ſeized, to be by them ſold; and the Monies ariſing by ſuch Sale, after defraying the Expences of ſuch Sale, ſhall be applied to the Uſe of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh.

Conſtables may ſeize Tools, &c. and bring the Perſons, in whoſe Cuſtody they are found, before ſome Juſtice.

III. Provided always, That in caſe the Perſon or Perſons accuſed ſhall requeſt of ſuch Juſtice to appoint a reaſonable Time to produce the Perſon or Perſons of or from whom he, ſhe, or they, bought or received the ſame, or ſome one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, to prove the Sale or Delivery thereof; then, and in ſuch Caſe, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Juſtice, and he is hereby authoriſed and required to appoint ſuch reaſonable Time as aforeſaid, and to iſſue out a Summons to the Conſtable, or other Peace Officer, of the Pariſh or Place where ſuch Perſon or Perſons, or ſuch Witneſs or Witneſſes, ſhall reſpectively reſide, requiring him, her, or them, to appear before ſuch Juſtice, at ſuch Time and Place as ſhall be ſo appointed by ſuch Juſtice, in order to be examined and give Evidence, on Oath, of the ſeveral Matters aforeſaid; but ſuch Perſon or Perſons, at the Time of making ſuch Requeſt, ſhall enter into a Recognizance, with or without Surety or Sureties, as ſuch Juſtice ſhall think proper, for his, her, or their Appearance before him at the Time ſo to be ſet, or, for want of ſuch Recognizance as aforeſaid, ſhall be committed until the Time that ſhall be ſo ſet or appointed by the ſaid Juſtice for the Appearance of ſuch Party or Parties, Witneſs or Witneſſes: And if at ſuch appointed Time ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be convicted of any of the Offences aforeſaid; then, and in ſuch Caſe, he, ſhe, or they, ſhall ſuffer ſuch Puniſhment as is herein-before directed to be inflicted on Perſons not returning ſuch Tools or Materials as aforeſaid.

Juſtice to allow a reaſonable Time for producing Parties.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Juſtice or Juſtices, upon Information made to him or them, on Oath, by any credible Perſon or Perſons, that there is juſt Cauſe to ſuſpect that any Ends of Yarn, Wefts, Thrumbs, Short Yarn, or other Refuſe of Cloth, Drugget, or of other Woollen Goods, or of Goods mixed with Wool (Flocks and Pinions only excepted), have been collected and received, and are lodged or concealed, in any Dwelling-houſe, Warehouſe, Outhouſe, Yard, or other Place, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to cauſe every ſuch Dwelling-houſe, Warehouſe, Outhouſe, Yard, and other Place, to be ſearched in the Day-time; and if ſuch Ends of Yarn, Wefts, Thrumbs, Short Yarn, or other Refuſe of Cloth, Drugget, or other Woollen Goods, or Goods mixed with Wool (Flocks and Pinions only excepted), above the Quantity of three Pounds, ſhall be found therein, to ſeize the ſame; and alſo to cauſe the Perſon or Perſons in whoſe Houſe, Warehouſe, Outhouſe, Yard, or other Place, the ſame ſhall be found, to be brought before him, or ſome other Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace for the ſame County, Diviſion, Liberty, or Place, and on Proof being made thereof upon Oath before ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices, that ſuch Ends of Yarn, Wefts, Thrumbs, Short Yarn, or other Refuſe of Cloth, Drugget, Woollen Goods, or Goods mixed with Wool (Flocks and Pinions only excepted), were found in the Dwelling-houſe, Warehouſe, Outhouſe, Yard, or other Place, of ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo brought before ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices, ſuch Perſon or Perſons not exculpating him, her, or themſelves, to the Satisfaction of ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices, ſhall thereupon ſuffer ſuch Puniſhment as is herein-before directed to be inflicted on Perſons not returning the Tools or Materials as aforeſaid, and the Materials ſo found in the Cuſtody of ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall, by Order of ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices, be burnt, or otherwiſe deſtroyed.

CAP. XXXII.

An Act to enable the Governor and Company of the Bank of Scotland to increaſe the Capital Stock of the ſaid Company.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS by an Act of the Parliament of Scotland, made in the Year one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety-five, (intituled, An Act for erecting a Bank in Scotland;) a Joint Stock, amounting to the Sum of twelve hundred thouſand Pounds Scots Money, was allowed to be raiſed by the Company thereby eſtabliſhed for carrying on and managing a publick Bank, and certain Perſons, thereinmentioned, were authoriſed to appoint a Book for receiving the Subſcriptions of ſuch Perſons as were willing to become Adventurers in the ſaid Joint Stock: And by the ſaid Act it was declared, That one thouſand Pounds Scots ſhould be the loweſt, and twenty thouſand Pounds Scots the higheſt Sum, which any one Perſon ſhould be allowed to ſubſcribe; and, by the ſaid Act it was alſo declared, That all and every the Perſons, ſubſcribing and paying to the ſaid Stock as aforeſaid, ſhould be one Body Politick and Corporate, by the Name of The Governor and Company of the Bank of Scotland, under which Name they ſhould have perpetual Succeſſion, and ſhould have a Common Seal; and by the ſaid Act it was directed, That within three Months after the aforeſaid Subſcriptions ſhould be ended, the Perſons in the

'said Act named, or any two of them, ſhould appoint a certain Day, and make due Intimation of the 'ſame, that ſuch and ſo many of the Adventurers, and none other, as ſhould each of them have ſub-'ſcribed for one thouſand Pounds, or upwards, in the ſaid Book, of the Joint Stock, might elect and 'chuſe, by a Majority of Votes which were to be given, one Vote for every one thouſand Pound Share 'of the Stock, a fit Perſon of the Subſcribers who had ſubſcribed for himſelf at leaſt for eight thouſand 'Pounds to be Governor of the ſaid Bank; and another fit Perſon of the Subſcribers, who ſhould have 'ſubſcribed for himſelf at leaſt for ſix thouſand Pounds, to be Deputy Governor of the ſaid Bank; and 'alſo twenty-four other fit Perſons, who ſhould have ſubſcribed, each of them for himſelf, at leaſt 'for three thouſand Pounds in the ſaid Joint Stock, to be Directors of the ſaid Bank; and certain other 'Rules and Regulations were thereby preſcribed for the better managing and ordering the Affairs of the 'ſaid Bank; and, in purſuance of the aforeſaid Act, the ſaid Bank was ſoon after eſtabliſhed, and has ever 'ſince continued: And whereas the ſaid Bank has proved a national Advantage, and it would greatly tend 'to the Advancement of Commerce, and be otherwiſe highly beneficial and expedient, that the Capital 'Stock of the ſaid Bank ſhould be increaſed, ſo as ſuch new or increaſed Stock, together with the ori-'ginal Stock of the ſaid Bank, ſhall not exceed in the Whole the Sum of twenty-four hundred thou-'ſand Pounds Scots Money, or two hundred thouſand Pounds Sterling;' may it therefore pleaſe Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That within one Month after the paſſing of this Act, or as ſoon after as may be, the Court of ordinary Directors of the ſaid Bank ſhall appoint a Book to be opened, and kept at the Office of the ſaid Bank of Scotland, for receiving Subſcriptions for an additional Capital or Joint Stock, to the Extent of twelve hundred thouſand Pounds Scots, or one hundred thouſand Pounds Sterling Money, and no more; in which Book, every Perſon or Perſons poſſeſſed of a Share or Shares of the preſent Capital Stock of the ſaid Bank of Scotland, ſhall be intitled to ſubſcribe for as much of the ſaid new or additional Stock, as he, ſhe, or they, ſhall be poſſeſſed of, of the old or original Stock, at the Time of his, her, or their ſuſcribing, and no more; or for a leſſer Number of Shares thereof, if ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall ſo think proper.

A Subſcription to be opened for raiſing an additional Capital of 100,000 l. Sterling by the preſent Proprietors.

'II. And, in order that no Perſon or Perſons poſſeſſed of Stock in the ſaid Bank of Scotland may be 'deprived of the Benefit hereby intended them,' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall be in the Power of every Proprietor of the preſent Capital Stock of the ſaid Company, by a Writing under his, her, or their Hands, to authoriſe any other Perſon he, ſhe, or they, ſhall think proper, to ſubſcribe for him, her, or them; and the Subſcription of the Perſon ſo authoriſed ſhall be equally effectual, as if the Proprietor, who gives ſuch Authority, had ſubſcribed with his or her own Hand.

Proprietors may ſubſcribe by Proxy.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Privilege and Preference of ſubſcribing to the new or additional Stock hereby given to the Proprietors of the preſent Capital Stock of the ſaid Bank, ſhall be limited to ſix Months from the Time of opening the Subſcription Book above mentioned; and after the Expiration of the ſaid Term, in caſe any Share or Shares of the ſaid new or additional Stock ſhall not have been ſubſcribed for, the ſaid Subſcription Book ſhall be ſhut, and a General Meeting of the Proprietors called, upon ſuch Notice as a Court of ordinary Directors think fit; at which Meeting the Share or Shares not ſubſcribed for, ſhall be ſold to the higheſt Bidder, provided ſuch Bidder be a Proprietor of the preſent Capital Stock of the ſaid Bank, or be authoriſed and impowered to purchaſe for a Perſon who is a Proprietor of the ſaid Capital Stock, by a Writing under his, her, or their Hands: And provided alſo, That the Shares ſo purchaſed, when added to the Shares already held or ſubſcribed for by the Perſon or Perſons by whom, or for whoſe Uſe and Benefit the ſaid new Shares are purchaſed, do not, in the Whole, exceed forty Shares, each Share being always one thouſand Pounds Scots, of the ſaid Capital Stock.

Proprietors Number of Shares aſcertained.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Share or Shares of the New Stock ſhall not be ſold at the ſaid General Meeting of Proprietors, then, and in that Caſe, the Subſcription Book ſhall be immediately again opened, and it ſhall be in the Power of any Perſon, who is not already a Proprietor, to ſubſcribe to the Extent of forty Shares; but it ſhall only be in the Power of a Perſon, who is already a Proprietor, to ſubſcribe for ſuch a Number of Shares as, joined to thoſe he, ſhe, or they, already hold or ſtand bound for, do not exceed forty Shares as aforeſaid.

If the Shares are not all ſold, a Subſcription to be again opened.

VI. And be it further enacted, That each and every Proprietor of New Stock ſhall receive Dividends upon the Money he, ſhe, or they, ſhall have paid in upon his, her, or their Subſcription, in the ſame Proportion as the Proprietors of Old Stock receive Dividends upon their Shares; that is to ſay, if a Proprietor of New Stock has paid in one-tenth of his Subſcription, he ſhall receive one-tenth of the Sum which a Proprietor of the ſame Quantity of Old Stock receives as a Dividend, and ſo on.

How Proprietors of New Stock are to receive their Dividends.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no Subſcriber of New Stock ſhall be intitled to draw any Part of a Dividend, either upon his Old or New Stock, until he has paid his Proportion of any Call of Stock that has been ordered by a Majority of a General Meeting of Proprietors; and each Subſcriber of New Stock failing to pay his Proportion of ſuch Call, ſhall be charged with the legal Intereſt upon it until the ſame be paid, and ſhall have no Vote at Elections or General Meetings while the ſame remains unpaid.

No Proprietor of New Stock to draw a Dividend till his Call is paid in.

VIII. And it is hereby enacted, That a Certificate, under the Hand of the Accomptant of the ſaid Bank, certifying that a Call or Calls has not been paid by any of the Perſons who have ſubſcribed themſelves to the ſaid New Stock, or by any of the Perſons for whom any other Perſon, impowered as aforeſaid, has ſubſcribed to the ſaid Stock, ſhall, when produced with this Act to the Court of Seſſion, be a ſufficient

Qualification of Governor, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted, That after the additional Capital has been completed by Subscriptions or Purchases, as above directed, no Proprietor shall be elected Governor, unless he has, upon the Original and New Stock together, paid in the Sum of sixteen thousand Pounds Scots; nor Deputy Governor, unless he has, upon the Original and New Stock together, paid in twelve thousand Pounds Scots; nor Director, unless he has upon the Original and New Stock together, paid in six thousand Pounds Scots.

Qualification of Voters.

X. And be it further enacted, That after the said additional Capital has been completed by Subscriptions or Purchases, as above directed, no Proprietor shall be intitled to give his Vote in Election of a Governor, Deputy Governor, or Directors, or in any Question, in any General Meeting, who is not possessed of two thousand Pounds Scots of Old or New Stock, or Old and New Stock together, and who has not actually paid in the said two thousand Pounds: And that every Proprietor shall have a Vote for each two thousand Pounds which he has actually paid in: Provided always, That no Proprietor shall ever be intitled to more than twenty Votes.

After May 15, 1774, Six-tenths of the additional Capital subscribed for to be paid within three Years.

XI. And it is hereby provided and declared, That Six-tenths of the additional Capital to be subscribed for or purchased, in Manner above mentioned, shall be actually paid in by the Subscribers or Purchasers within the Space of three Years from and after the fifteenth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, and that by such Proportions, and at such Times, within the said three Years, as shall be ordered by a Majority of a General Meeting or Meetings of Proprietors; and that the remaining Four-tenths shall be paid in at such Times, and by such Proportions, as shall be ordered by a Majority of a General Meeting or Meetings of Proprietors: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent a Majority of a General Meeting or Meetings of Proprietors to call for the Whole, or any Part of the additional Capital, at such Time or Times, within the said Period of three Years, from and after the said fifteenth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, as to them shall seem proper.

Proprietors, after the Capital is completed, may pay the Whole of their Subscriptions before May 15, 1775.

XII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be in the Power of every such Subscriber or Subscribers, Purchaser or Purchasers, after the said Capital has been completed, as above directed, to pay in the Whole, but not a Part of the Sum, he, she, or they, has or have subscribed or purchased, although the same shall not have been called for by a General Meeting, provided that such Payment be made by him, her, or them, between and the fifteenth Day of May, which will be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five; and, upon such Payment being so made, with the legal Interest of the same, from the Day of the yearly balancing of the Bank's Books, immediately preceding the Payment, he, she, or they, making such Payment, shall be intitled to a Share of the Profits accruing to the Bank, and be subject to a Share of the Loss that may arise to it, from and after the aforesaid yearly Balancing, immediately preceding such Payment, in Proportion to the Share or Shares so subscribed for and paid in by him, her, or them; and he, she, or they, shall thereupon be intitled to Votes in the Proportions before mentioned; and he shall be intitled to be elected Governor, Deputy Governor, or Director, if the Sums paid in by him be of the Extent above required to qualify him for these Offices.

Manner of chusing Governor, Dep. Governor, &c.

'XIII. And whereas the said Act of the Scotch Parliament, made in the Year one thousand six hundred and ninety-five, has not been sufficiently explicit in laying down a particular Mode of electing the 'Governor, Deputy Governor, and Directors, to be annually chosen; and it has been the Practice for the 'Proprietors to send signed Lists to the Directors of the Persons they intended to vote for, and for the Directors to report to a subsequent General Meeting the Persons chosen by the Majority: And whereas, 'instead of chusing twenty-four Directors, in Terms of the aforesaid Act, it has been the Practice, in 'consequence of a Resolution of a General Meeting of the Proprietors, held on the twelfth Day of June, 'one thousand six hundred and ninety-six, to chuse twelve ordinary Directors, and twelve extraordinary 'Directors, which last only give their Assistance on certain Occasions;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in Time to come, a General Meeting of the Proprietors shall be held annually, on the last Tuesday of March, for the Purpose of chusing a Governor, Deputy Governor, twelve ordinary, and twelve extraordinary Directors; and that every Proprietor, present at that General Meeting, shall give in to the Governor, or Deputy Governor, or such of the Directors for the preceding Year as are then present, a List, containing the Names of the Persons for whom he or she means to vote into these respective Offices.

How Intimation of annual Meetings is to be given for Election of Governor, &c.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That regular Intimation shall be made in the News-papers, called The Edinburgh Evening Courant, and Caledonian Mercury, of the Day upon which the Annual General Meeting for the Election of the Governor, Deputy Governor, and Directors, is to be held, at least thirty Days before such annual General Meeting.

Proprietors may send Lists of Persons they intend for Offices.

'XV. And, in order that those Proprietors who cannot attend personally may not be deprived of the 'Right to vote in such Election,' be it also hereby further enacted, That all such Proprietors shall be allowed to send Lists of the Persons whom they mean to vote into the said respective Offices, which List, if holograph, of the Proprietor or Proprietors by whom they are sent, or signed by such Proprietor or Proprietors before two or more credible Witnesses, and addressed to the Governor, Deputy Governor, and Directors of the Bank of Scotland, shall be equally effectual as if the Signers of them were personally present: And the Lists being so given in, the Governor, Deputy Governor, and Directors, of the preceding Year, or such of them as are present, shall immediately proceed to investigate the Lists in Presence of the Meeting; and shall report, to that Meeting, the Names of the Persons who appear to be elected, by the Majority of Votes, into the said respective Offices of Governor, Deputy Governor, and Directors, ordinary and extraordinary.

Persons claiming to vote at Elections to take

XVI. Provided always, That every Person claiming a Right to vote in such Election, or to vote in any General Meeting of the said Bank, shall be obliged to, and do take the following Oath; videlicet,

'WHEREAS by ſeveral Acts of Parliament now in Force, for granting, continuing, and better ſecuring the Duties payable ad valorem upon unrated Eaſt India Goods, and for aſcertaining the Values thereof according to which ſuch Duties ſhall be paid, the Importer or Importers thereof are to give Security, by Bond, for Payment of the ſaid Duties, according to the real Values of the ſaid Goods, to be aſcertained according to the reſpective Acts of Parliament in that Behalf made (except Coffee), as ſoon as the ſaid Goods ſhall be ſold; and alſo for expoſing the ſaid Goods to Sale openly and fairly by Way of Auction, or by Inch of Candle, within the City of London, within the Time of three Years after the Importation thereof: And whereas the Quantity of Singlo and Bohea Teas imported by the United Company of Merchants of England, trading to the Eaſt Indies, and which remained in their Warehouſes unſold on the fifth Day of April, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, is greater than can be expected to be ſold by the ſaid Company, within the Term of three Years ſo limited for that Purpoſe, to be computed from the reſpective Times of the Importation of ſuch Teas, and it is neceſſary that ſome further Time ſhould be granted to the ſaid Company to put their ſaid Teas up to Sale:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That for ſuch of the ſaid Singlo Teas as are at preſent imported, and which remained unſold on the fifth Day of April, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, the ſaid United Company may at any Time within the Space of five Years, to be computed from the Importation thereof, and for ſuch of the ſaid Bohea Teas as are at preſent imported, and which remained unſold on the ſaid fifth Day of April, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, the ſaid United Company may, at any Time within the Space of four Years, to be computed from the Importation thereof, expoſe ſuch reſpective Teas to Sale; and, after ſuch Sale or Sales, there ſhall be allowed the like Diſcounts on Payments of the reſpective Duties on ſuch Teas, as if the ſame had been expoſed to Sale within the Term of three Years before mentioned, or any other Time heretofore limited by Law; any Law, Uſage, or Cuſtom, to the contrary notwithſtanding. or Allowances, and under ſuch Rules, Regulations, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as ſuch Exporter or Exporters would have been intitled to, in caſe ſuch Teas had been exported within the ſaid Term of three Years; any Law, Uſage, or Cuſtom, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XXXV.

An Act to enable the Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Treaſurer of his Majeſty's Exchequer, or the Lord High Treaſurer for the Time being, to compound certain Debts due to his Majeſty, and affecting the Eſtates heretofore of Charles Maſon Eſquire, deceaſed, in the Counties of Montgomery and Salop; and, upon Payment of ſuch Compoſition, to diſcharge and exonerate the ſaid Eſtates therefrom.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS it appears by the general Certificate of his Majeſty's Impreſts, that Charles Maſon Eſquire, late Treaſurer of the Tranſport Service, on the Foot of his final Account of that Service to the nineteenth of April, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eight, was indebted to the Crown the Sum of three thouſand one hundred and twenty Pounds, twelve Shillings and Three-pence: And whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made and pronounced on or about the ninth Day of December, in the twelfth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſeven hundred and thirteen, in a Cauſe between Sir Bybye Lake Baronet, Son, Heir, and Executor, of Thomas Lake Eſquire, then deceaſed, Plaintiff, and Charles Maſon Eſquire, Thomas Paine, Joſeph Newell, and George Newell, Defendants; and alſo in a croſs Cauſe between the ſaid Charles Maſon Plaintiff, and Sir Bybye Lake Baronet, Thomas Paine, Joſeph Newell, George Newell, Charles Turner, Sherrard, the then Attorney General of the ſaid Queen, William Poultney, and Arthur Lake, Defendants; after ſtating therein (amongſt other Things) certain Mortgages and Securities, whereby all the Eſtates of the ſaid Charles Maſon were conveyed and made over to the ſaid Thomas Lake, and others, his Truſtees for ſecuring unto the ſaid Thomas Lake ſeveral large Sums of Money therein mentioned, and then due to the ſaid Sir Bybye Lake, as his Executor; and alſo ſtating that the ſaid Joſeph and George Newell, being indebted to her ſaid Majeſty, an Extent iſſued out of the Court of Exchequer againſt them, and that, by an Inquiſition taken thereon, the ſaid Charles Maſon was found to be indebted to the ſaid Joſeph and George Newell in the Sums of three thouſand five hundred Pounds, and four thouſand Pounds, being ſo much Money paid and expended by them for the Uſe of the ſaid Charles Maſon, and thoſe Debts were ſeized into her ſaid Majeſty's Hands; it was, amongſt other Things, ordered and decreed, That Maſter Browning, one of the Maſters of the ſaid Court of Chancery, ſhould take an Account of what was due to the ſaid Sir Bybye Lake for principal Money and Intereſt on the ſeveral Mortgages and Sums of Money therein mentioned, and what upon ſuch Account ſhould be found due, together with the Coſts of the ſaid Suits, from the Time of the ſaid Hearing of the ſaid Cauſes, was to be ſatisfied by a Sale of a competent Part of the ſaid Charles Maſon's Eſtates in the ſaid Counties of Montgomery or Salop; but in caſe ſuch Sale could not be had within a Year, the ſaid Sir Bybye Lake was to be at Liberty to apply to the Court touching the Foreclоſure prayed by his Bill; and it was further ordered, that the ſaid Maſter ſhould take an Account of all Dealings and Tranſactions between the ſaid Maſon and the Defendants the Newells, and what, upon ſuch Account, ſhould appear to be due to the ſaid Maſon, including what he ſhould pay on the ſaid Mortgages to the ſaid Lake, the ſaid Maſon was to come in as a Creditor with the reſt of the Creditors of the ſaid Newells; but if, upon the ſaid Account, the ſaid Maſon ſhould appear to be indebted to the ſaid Newells, then what he the ſaid Maſon ſhould be ſo found indebted ſhould be raiſed, after Satisfaction of the Monies due to the ſaid Lake, by a Sale of a further Part of the ſaid Manors and Eſtates in the ſaid Counties of Montgomery and Salop; and the Money, when raiſed, was to be paid towards Satisfaction of the Debt due from the ſaid Newells to the Crown: And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Arthur, late Earl of Powis, deceaſed, Father of the preſent Earl, not long before his Deceaſe, preſented a Memorial to the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, thereby ſtating, amongſt other Things, That he had then lately purchaſed great Part of the ſaid mortgaged Premiſes; but though the ſame, by reaſon of the great Amount of the ſaid prior Incumbrances, would not be ſufficient to anſwer any Part of the ſaid Debt to the Crown, yet ſo long as the ſaid Debt continued a Charge on the ſaid Eſtates, it would be ſuch an Objection to the Title as would prevent the Memorialiſt from ſettling or making Sale of any Part thereof, and therefore the ſaid Memorialiſt prayed to be permitted to compound the ſaid Claim of the Crown: And whereas the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury referred the ſaid Memorial to the Solicitor of the Treaſury to conſider the ſame, and to report to their Lordſhips a State of the Caſe, with his Opinion thereon; and Thomas Nuthall Eſquire, the Solicitor of the Treaſury, by his Report, bearing Date the twenty-fourth Day of November, in the 'Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy two, certified, amongſt other Things, to the Lords 'Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, That, by the Maſter's Report in the aforeſaid Cauſe, dated the twenty-'ſixth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, it appeared there was then due to Bybye 'Lake Eſquire, the legal Repreſentative of the ſaid Sir Bybye Lake Baronet, on his ſaid Mortgages on the 'ſaid Maſon's Eſtate in Montgomery and Shropſhire, for Principal, Intereſt, and Coſts, thirty-eight thouſand 'four hundred and twenty-one Pounds two Shillings and Four-pence; and which, by the ſaid Report, 'was appointed to be paid to the ſaid Bybye Lake on the fourth Day of July then next enſuing, and which 'it was repreſented to the ſaid Solicitor had not been paid; and the ſaid Solicitor further certified to the 'ſaid Lords Commiſſioners, That it alſo appeared, by an Account of the Receiver of the ſaid mortgaged 'Premiſes paſſed in the Court of Chancery for one Year, ending at Lady-day one thouſand ſeven hundred 'and ſixty-eight, that the yearly Value of the ſaid mortgaged Premiſes in Montgomery and Shropſhire is 'only one thouſand one hundred and four Pounds fifteen Shillings and Ten-pence; he therefore ſub-'mitted to the ſaid Lords Commiſſioners Conſideration, that, under the Circumſtances of the Caſe, and 'particularly in regard to the ſaid mortgaged Premiſes, if ſold, would not ſell for nearly the Sum reported 'due to the ſaid Bybye Lake on the twenty-ſixth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, the 'Claim the Crown has thereon, under the ſaid Decree in one thouſand ſeven hundred and thirteen, could 'never be ſatisfied; and therefore the ſaid Solicitor was of Opinion, that if their Lordſhips ſhould think 'fit, they might properly conſent to the ſaid Eſtates being diſcharged from the Debt due to the Crown; 'but as it appeared, from the Decree and Proceedings in the ſaid Cauſe in Chancery, that the Solicitor 'of the Taxes had had the ſole Management of the Crown's Intereſt in this Matter, he ſubmitted it to their 'Lordſhips, whether it would not be proper to direct the Matter to be laid before the Solicitor of the 'Tax Office, who, from the Papers in his Cuſtody, could exactly aſcertain what the Crown Debt really 'amounted to, and who would be better able to adviſe their Lordſhips whether any, and what, Compo-'ſition ought to be paid: And whereas the Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury referred the ſaid Report 'of the ſaid Solicitor of the Treaſury to Henry Wilmot Eſquire, the Solicitor of the Tax Office, who, by 'his Report, dated the ſecond Day of July, in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſeven hundred and 'ſeventy-three, did certify to the ſaid Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury (amongſt other 'Things), That it appeared to him, by the Books at the Tax Office, that ſo long ago as the Year one 'thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeven, or one thouſand ſeven hundred and eight, George Dixon, the then 'Receiver for the County of Somerſet, failed, indebted to her late Majeſty Queen Anne in the Sum of 'twenty-two thouſand four hundred and twenty-two Pounds and ſix Shillings, which, by the ſaid Books, 'appeared to be ſtill due; and that the before-mentioned Newells were the Securities for the ſaid Dixon; 'and it alſo appeared to him, by the Anſwer of the Attorney General, as ſtated in the before-mentioned 'Decree of one thouſand ſeven hundred and thirteen, that an Extent iſſued againſt the ſaid Newells, 'and upon an Inquiſition taken thereon upon the thirteenth Day of December, in the ſixth Year of the 'Reign of Queen Anne, Charles Maſon was found to be indebted to the ſaid Newells in the ſeveral Sums 'of three thouſand five hundred Pounds, and four thouſand Pounds, being ſo much paid by them for the 'Uſe of the ſaid Maſon, which Debts were ſeized into her Majeſty's Hands; and the ſaid Solicitor of the 'Taxes did further certify to their Lordſhips, That the Facts ſtated in the Report of the ſaid Solicitor of 'the Treaſury, with regard to the Debt due to the aforeſaid Maſter Lake therein mentioned, and with 'regard to the annual Value of the ſaid mortgaged Premiſes, are truly ſtated; wherefore the ſaid Solicitor 'of the Taxes was of Opinion, That the Intereſt of the Mortgage to the ſaid Maſter Lake (whoſe Debt 'was prior to that of the Crown), greatly exceeded the whole Income of the mortgaged Eſtate, and, of 'conſequence, that the ſaid Maſter Lake's Debt did annually increaſe; and that he was alſo of Opinion, 'That the Debt due to the ſaid Maſter Lake much exceeded the intrinſick Value of the mortgaged Eſtate; 'and the ſaid Solicitor of the Taxes did further inform their ſaid Lordſhips, That Lord Clive, having, for 'a ſmall Sum of Money, obtained a Conveyance of the Equity of Redemption of the ſaid mortgaged 'Premiſes from the Heir at Law of the ſaid Charles Maſon, redeemed Lord Catherlough, the Aſſignee of the 'ſaid Maſter Lake the Mortgagee, afterwards ſold to, or exchanged with, the Petitioner, the Earl of 'Powis, the ſaid mortgaged Premiſes, or ſome conſiderable Part thereof; but that, as the Conveyance 'obtained by the ſaid Lord Clive from the Heir at Law of Maſon, could not bar the Crown, therefore it 'was of Conſequence to the Petitioner the Earl of Powis and to Lord Clive (if any Part of the mort-'gaged Eſtate remained in him), to get rid of the Debt due to the Crown, to eſtabliſh their reſpective 'Titles to the ſaid mortgaged Premiſes; and that, upon the Whole, as the Debt due to the ſaid Maſter 'Lake appeared to him greatly to exceed the real Value of the ſaid mortgaged Eſtate, and as that Debt 'would always be prior to that of the Crown, and might be ſet up by the Earl of Powis and Lord Clive 'againſt the Crown Debt; and as the Rents of the ſaid Eſtate would not nearly pay the Intereſt of 'that Debt, which conſequently would annually increaſe; and as it would not, in the ſaid Solicitor's 'Opinion, be at all adviſable for the Crown to redeem the ſaid Mortgage; he thought it might be pro-'per for their Lordſhips to permit the Petitioner, the ſaid Earl of Powis, to apply to Parliament, to en-'able their Lordſhips to compound the Debt due to the Crown, and after ſuch Act ſhould be obtained, 'their Lordſhips might compound the ſaid Debt at ſuch Sum of Money, as, under all the Circumſtances of 'the Caſe, their Lordſhips ſhould think reaſonable; but he was of Opinion their Lordſhips could not 'compound the ſame without the Aid of Parliament: And whereas the ſaid Henry Arthur, Earl of Powis, 'is dead, leaving the Right Honourable George Edward Henry Arthur, now Earl of Powis, his only Son 'and Heir, who is an Infant, and the Right Honourable Barbara Counteſs Dowager of Powis, the Mo-'ther, and one of the Guardians, appointed by the Will of the ſaid Henry Arthur Earl of Powis, of the 'ſaid George Edward Henry Arthur Earl of Powis, the Infant, hath, ſince the Deceaſe of the ſaid late Earl, 'her Huſband, applied to the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury in Behalf of her ſaid Son, to 'compound the ſaid Debt to the Crown, affecting the ſaid Eſtates late of the ſaid Charles Maſon, which

'the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury are willing (as it is reaſonable) ſo to do, if enabled 'thereunto by an Act of Parliament:' Wherefore, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subject, the ſaid Barbara Counteſs Dowager of Powis, for and in Behalf of the ſaid George Edward Henry Arthur Earl of Powis, her ſaid Infant Son, doth moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Treaſurer of his Majeſty's Exchequer now being, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treaſurer for the Time being, or any three or more of the Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Treaſurer of his Majeſty's Exchequer for the Time being, and he and they is and are hereby authoriſed and impowered to make an Agreement, and compound with the ſaid George Edward Henry Arthur Earl of Powis, his Guardian or Guardians, Heirs or Aſſigns, for the Payment of ſuch Sum of Money, by him the ſaid George Edward Henry Arthur Earl of Powis, his Guardian or Guardians, Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, in lieu and full Satisfaction of the Debt, Sum or Sums of Money herein-before mentioned to be due from the ſaid Charles Maſon, deceaſed, to the Crown, as Treaſurer of the Tranſport Service, as aforeſaid, and from the ſaid Charles Maſon, to her ſaid late Majeſty Queen Anne, or from the ſaid Charles Maſon to the ſaid Joſeph and George Newells, Debtor to the ſaid Queen, as aforeſaid; and, by the aforeſaid Decree of the ninth Day of December, in the twelfth Year of the Reign of her ſaid late Majeſty Queen Anne, directed to be raiſed and paid, and which is now due and owing to his Majeſty; and alſo of all Sum and Sums of Money now due, or hereafter to grow or become due, to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, for or on Account, or by Reaſon or Means, of the ſaid Debt, Sum or Sums of Money, as to them the ſaid Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Treaſurer of his Majeſty's Exchequer, or the Lord High Treaſurer, as aforeſaid, ſhall ſeem meet and reaſonable, and by his or their Warrant or Warrants to direct the ſaid George Edward Henry Arthur Earl of Powis, his Guardian or Guardians, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, to pay into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer ſuch Sum or Sums of Money as ſhall be ſo agreed for and compounded as aforeſaid, and, upon ſuch Payment, entirely to acquit, exonerate, and diſcharge the ſaid George Edward Henry Arthur Earl of Powis, his Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, and the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, heretofore the Eſtate of the ſaid Charles Maſon, deceaſed, in the Counties of Salop and Montgomery, or either of them, of and from all Claims and Demands for and on account of the ſaid Debts ſo due to the Crown, or to his Majeſty, as aforeſaid.

Lord High Treaſurer may compound with the Earl of Powis, &c. for a Debt due by Charles Maſon to the Crown.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That immediately from and after Payment ſhall be made into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer of ſuch Sum or Sums of Money as ſhall be ſo agreed for and compounded as aforeſaid, the ſaid George Edward Henry Arthur Earl of Powis, his Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns reſpectively, and all and every the Manors, Meſſuages, Farms, Lands, Tenements, Tithes, and Hereditaments, which were the Eſtates of the aforeſaid Charles Maſon, deceaſed, in the ſaid Counties of Salop and Montgomery, and compriſed in the ſaid Mortgage, as aforeſaid, ſhall be freed, acquitted, releaſed, exempted, exonerated, and diſcharged of, from, and againſt, the Payment of the ſaid Debts herein-before mentioned to be due from the ſaid Charles Maſon to the Crown, and from the ſaid Charles Maſon to her ſaid late Majeſty Queen Anne, or from the ſaid Charles Maſon to the ſaid Joſeph and George Newells, Debtors to the ſaid Queen, as aforeſaid; and which, by the aforeſaid Decree of the ninth Day of December, in the twelfth Year of the Reign of her ſaid late Majeſty Queen Anne, was directed to be raiſed and paid, as aforeſaid; and alſo of, from, and againſt, all Sum and Sums of Money now due, and hereafter to grow or become due, to the Crown, or to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, for, or on account, or by occaſion or means, of the ſaid Debts, in any Manner howſoever; and alſo of, from, and againſt, all Inquiſitions, Extents, Executions, Claims, and Demands whatſoever, of his ſaid Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, for, on account, or in reſpect of, the ſame Debts, or any Part thereof, in any-wiſe howſoever.

After Payment of Money ſo compounded for, Earl of Powis, &c. releaſed of Charles Maſon's Debts to the Crown.

Preamble. Act 28 Geo. 2.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of his Majeſty King 'George the Second (intituled, An Act to amend an Act, made in the twenty-ſixth Year of the Reign 'of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the Amendment and Preſervation of the Publick Highways 'and Turnpike Roads of this Kingdom; and for the more effectual Execution of the Laws relating 'thereto), it was, amongſt other Things, enacted, for the Encouragement of Broad Wheels, that all 'Carriages having the Fellies of the Wheels of the Breadth of nine Inches, ſhould paſs through all 'Turnpike-gates without paying any Toll, for three Years: And whereas, in order to make Recompence 'to the Creditors upon the Tolls of ſuch Gates, for any Diminution of Toll that might ariſe by ſuch 'Exemption, it was further enacted, That every Act of Parliament, made in that Seſſion, or thereto-'fore, for repairing and amending Turnpike Roads, ſhould be continued for five Years, to be computed 'from the Expiration of every ſuch Act, ſubject to the Tolls, Duties, Penalties, Forfeitures, Remedies,

An Act for the better regulating the Government of the Province of the Maſſachuſet's Bay, in New England.

Preamble, reciting Letters Patent of 3 Gul. & Mariæ.

'WHEREAS by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of England, made in the third Year of the Reign of their late Majeſties King William and Queen Mary, for uniting, erecting, and incorporating, the ſeveral Colonies, Territories, and Tracts of Land therein mentioned, into one real Province, by the Name of Their Majeſties Province of the Maſſachuſet's Bay, in New England; whereby it was, amongſt other Things, ordained and eſtabliſhed, That the Governor of the ſaid Province ſhould, from thenceforth, be appointed and commiſſionated by their Majeſties, their Heirs and Succeſſors: It was, however, granted and ordained, That, from the Expiration of the Term for and during which the eight and twenty Perſons named in the ſaid Letters Patent were appointed to be the firſt Counſellors or Aſſiſtants to the Governor of the ſaid Province for the Time being, the aforeſaid Number of eight and twenty Counſellors or Aſſiſtants ſhould yearly, once in every Year, for ever thereafter, be, by the General Court or Aſſembly, newly choſen: And whereas the ſaid Method of electing ſuch Counſellors or Aſſiſtants, to be veſted with the ſeveral Powers, Authorities, and Privileges, therein mentioned, although conformable to the Practice theretofore uſed in ſuch of the Colonies thereby united, in which the Appointment of the reſpective Governors had been veſted in the General Courts or Aſſemblies of the ſaid Colonies, hath, by repeated Experience, been found to be extremely ill adapted to the Plan of Government eſtabliſhed in the Province of the Maſſachuſet's Bay, by the ſaid Letters Patent hereinbefore mentioned, and hath been ſo far from contributing to the Attainment of the good Ends and Purpoſes

'poſes thereby intended, and to the promoting of the internal Welfare, Peace, and good Government, 'of the ſaid Province, or to the Maintenance of the juſt Subordination to, and Conformity with, the 'Laws of Great Britain, that the Manner of exerciſing the Powers, Authorities, and Privileges afore-'ſaid, by the Perſons ſo annually elected, hath, for ſome Time paſt, been ſuch as had the moſt manifeſt 'Tendency to obſtruct, and, in great Meaſure, defeat, the Execution of the Laws; to weaken the At-'tachment of his Majeſty's well-diſpoſed Subjects in the ſaid Province to his Majeſty's Government, and 'to encourage the ill-diſpoſed among them to proceed even to Acts of direct Reſiſtance to, and Defiance 'of, his Majeſty's Authority: And it hath accordingly happened, that an open Reſiſtance to the Execu-'tion of the Laws hath actually taken place in the Town of Boſton, and the Neighbourhood thereof, 'within the ſaid Province: And whereas it is, under theſe Circumſtances, become abſolutely neceſſary, 'in order to the Preſervation of the Peace and good Order of the ſaid Province, the Protection of his Ma-'jeſty's well-diſpoſed Subjects therein reſident, the Continuance of the mutual Benefits ariſing from the 'Commerce and Correſpondence between this Kingdom and the ſaid Province, and the maintaining of the 'juſt Dependance of the ſaid Province upon the Crown and Parliament of Great Britain, that the ſaid 'Method of annually electing the Counſellors or Aſſiſtants of the ſaid Province ſhould no longer be ſuf-'fered to continue, but that the Appointment of the ſaid Counſellors or Aſſiſtants ſhould henceforth be 'put upon the like Footing as is eſtabliſhed in ſuch other of his Majeſty's Colonies or Plantations in 'America, the Governors whereof are appointed by his Majeſty's Commiſſion, under the Great Seal of 'Great Britain:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt Day of Auguſt, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, ſo much of the Charter, granted by their Majeſties King William and Queen Mary to the Inhabitants of the ſaid Province of the Maſſachuſet's Bay, in New England, and all and every Clauſe, Matter, and Thing, therein contained, which relates to the Time and Manner of electing the Aſſiſtants or Counſellors for the ſaid Province, be revoked, and is hereby revoked and made void and of none Effect; and that the Offices of all Counſellors and Aſſiſtants, elected and appointed in purſuance thereof, ſhall from thenceforth ceaſe and determine: And that, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, the Council, or Court of Aſſiſtants of the ſaid Province for the Time being, ſhall be compoſed of ſuch of the Inhabitants or Proprietors of Lands within the ſame as ſhall be thereunto nominated and appointed by his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, from Time to Time, by Warrant under his or their Signet or Sign Manual, and with the Advice of the Privy Council, agreeable to the Practice now uſed in reſpect to the Appointment of Counſellors in ſuch of his Majeſty's other Colonies in America, the Governors whereof are appointed by Commiſſion under the Great Seal of Great Britain: Provided that the Number of the ſaid Aſſiſtants or Counſellors ſhall not, at any one Time, exceed Thirty-ſix, nor be leſs than Twelve.

After Aug. 1, 1774, the ſaid Letters Patent to be void.

Council how to be compoſed.

II. And it is hereby further enacted, That the ſaid Aſſiſtants or Counſellors, ſo to be appointed as aforeſaid, ſhall hold their Offices reſpectively, for and during the Pleaſure of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors; and ſhall have and enjoy all the Powers, Privileges, and Immunities, at preſent held, exerciſed, and enjoyed, by the Aſſiſtants or Counſellors of the ſaid Province, conſtituted and elected, from Time to Time, under the ſaid Charter (except as herein-after excepted); and ſhall alſo, upon their Admiſſion into the ſaid Council, and before they enter upon the Execution of their Offices reſpectively, take the Oaths, and make, repeat, and ſubſcribe, the Declarations required, as well by the ſaid Charter as by any Law or Laws of the ſaid Province now in Force, to be taken by the Aſſiſtants or Counſellors who have been ſo elected and conſtituted as aforeſaid.

Powers of the ſaid Counſellors.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, it ſhall and may be lawful for his Majeſty's Governor for the Time being of the ſaid Province, or, in his Abſence, for the Lieutenant-governor, to nominate and appoint, under the Seal of the Province, from Time to Time, and alſo to remove, without the Conſent of the Council, all Judges of the inferior Courts of Common Pleas, Commiſſioners of Oyer and Terminer, the Attorney General, Provoſts, Marſhals, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Officers to the Council or Courts of Juſtice belonging; and that all Judges of the inferior Courts of Common Pleas, Commiſſioners of Oyer and Terminer, the Attorney General, Provoſts, Marſhals, Juſtices, and other Officers ſo appointed by the Governor, or, in his Abſence, by the Lieutenant-governor alone, ſhall and may have, hold, and exerciſe, their ſaid Offices, Powers, and Authorities, as fully and completely, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as any Judges of the inferior Courts of Common Pleas, Commiſſioners of Oyer and Terminer, Attorney General, Provoſts, Marſhals, or other Officers, have or might have done heretofore under the ſaid Letters Patent, in the third Year of the Reign of their late Majeſties King William and Queen Mary; any Law, Statute, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Governor to appoint and remove Judges, Commiſſioners of Oyer and Terminer, &c.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to annul or make void the Commiſſion granted before the ſaid firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, to any Judges of the inferior Courts of Common Pleas, Commiſſioners of Oyer and Terminer, the Attorney General, Provoſts, Marſhals, Juſtices of the Peace, or other Officers; but that they may hold and exerciſe the ſame, as if this Act had never been made, until the ſame ſhall be determined by Death, Removal by the Governor, or other Avoidance, as the Caſe may happen.

Nothing herein contained to annul the Commiſſion granted before July 1774.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, it ſhall and may be lawful for his Majeſty's Governor, or, in his Abſence, for the Lieutenant-governor for the Time being of the ſaid Province, from Time to Time, to nominate and appoint the Sheriffs without the Conſent of the Council, and to remove ſuch Sheriffs with ſuch Conſent, and not otherwiſe.

Governor to appoint Sheriffs without the Conſent of Council.

VI. And

On a Vacancy of the Office of Chief Juſtice, &c. the Governor may appoint the Succeſſors.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, upon every Vacancy of the Offices of Chief Juſtice and Judges of the Superior Court of the ſaid Province, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, the Governor for the Time being, or, in his Abſence, the Lieutenant-governor, without the Conſent of the Council, ſhall have full Power and Authority to nominate and appoint the Perſons to ſucceed to the ſaid Offices, who ſhall hold their Commiſſions during the Pleaſure of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; and that neither the Chief Juſtice and Judges appointed before the ſaid firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, nor thoſe who ſhall hereafter be appointed purſuant to this Act, ſhall be removed, unleſs by the Order of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, under his or their Sign Manual.

No Meeting to be called without the Conſent of the Governor.

'VII. And whereas, by ſeveral Acts of the General Court, which have been from Time to Time enacted 'and paſſed within the ſaid Province, the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the ſeveral Townſhips, Diſtricts, 'and Precincts, qualified, as is therein expreſſed, are authoriſed to aſſemble together, annually, or occa- 'ſionally, upon Notice given, in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Acts direct, for the Choice of Select Men, 'Conſtables, and other Officers, and for the making and agreeing upon ſuch neceſſary Rules, Orders, 'and Bye-laws, for the directing, managing, and ordering, the prudential Affairs of ſuch Townſhips, 'Diſtricts, and Precincts, and for other Purpoſes: And whereas a great Abuſe has been made of the 'Power of calling ſuch Meetings, and the Inhabitants have, contrary to the Deſign of their Inſtitution, 'been miſled to treat upon Matters of the moſt general Concern, and to paſs many dangerous and un- 'warrantable Reſolves:' For Remedy whereof, be it enacted, That from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, no Meeting ſhall be called by the Select Men, or at the Requeſt of any Number of Freeholders of any Townſhip, Diſtrict, or Precinct, without the Leave of the Governor, or, in his Abſence, of the Lieutenant-governor, in Writing, expreſſing the ſpecial Buſineſs of the ſaid Meeting, firſt had and obtained, except the annual Meeting in the Months of March or May, for the Choice of Select Men, Conſtables, and other Officers, or except for the Choice of Perſons to fill up the Offices aforeſaid, on the Death or Removal of any of the Perſons firſt elected to ſuch Offices, and alſo, except any Meeting for the Election of a Repreſentative or Repreſentatives in the General Court; and that no other Matter ſhall be treated of at ſuch Meetings, except the Election of their aforeſaid Officers or Repreſentatives, nor at any other Meeting, except the Buſineſs expreſſed in the Leave given by the Governor, or, in his Abſence, by the Lieutenant-governor.

Jurors to be ſummoned by the Sheriffs only.

'VIII. And whereas the Method at preſent uſed in the Province of Maſſachuſet's Bay, in America, of 'electing Perſons to ſerve on Grand Juries, and other Juries, by the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the 'ſeveral Towns, affords Occaſion for many evil Practices, and tends to pervert the free and impartial Ad- 'miniſtration of Juſtice:' For Remedy whereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the reſpective Times appointed for the holding of the General Seſſions of the Peace in the ſeveral Counties within the ſaid Province, next after the Month of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, the Jurors to ſerve at the Superior Courts of Judicature, Courts of Aſſize, General Gaol Delivery, General Seſſions of the Peace, and inferior Court of Common Pleas, in the ſeveral Counties within the ſaid Province, ſhall not be elected, nominated, or appointed, by the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the ſeveral Towns within the ſaid reſpective Counties, nor ſummoned or returned by the Conſtables of the ſaid Towns; but that, from thenceforth, the Jurors to ſerve at the Superior Courts of Judicature, Courts of Aſſize, General Gaol Delivery, General Seſſions of the Peace, and inferior Court of Common Pleas, within the ſaid Province, ſhall be ſummoned and returned by the Sheriffs of the reſpective Counties within the ſaid Province; and all Writs of Venire Facias, or other Proceſs or Warrants to be iſſued for the Return of Jurors to ſerve at the ſaid Courts, ſhall be directed to the Sheriffs of the ſaid Counties reſpectively, any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

When a Sheriff ſhall be a Party, Writs for Trial to be executed by the Coroner.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That wherever the Sheriff of any County ſhall happen to be a Party, or intereſted or related to any Party or Perſon intereſted in any Proſecution or Suit depending in any of the ſaid Courts; that then, in ſuch Caſe, the Writ of Venire Facias, or other Proceſs or Warrant for the Summoning and Return of a Jury, for the Trial of ſuch Proſecution or Suit, ſhall be directed to, and executed by, the Coroner of ſuch County; and in caſe ſuch Coroner ſhall be alſo a Party, or intereſted in, or related to, any Party or Perſon intereſted in ſuch Proſecution or Suit, then the Venire Facias, or other Proceſs or Warrant, for the Summoning and Return of a Jury for the Trial of ſuch Proſecution or Suit ſhall be directed to, and executed by, a proper and indifferent Perſon, to be appointed for that Purpoſe by the Court wherein ſuch Proſecution or Suit ſhall be depending.

Conſtables to deliver in Liſts to the Juſtices of the Names of Perſons within the reſpective Towns;

'X. And that all Sheriffs may be the better informed of Perſons qualified to ſerve on Juries at the 'Superior Courts of Judicature, Courts of Aſſize, General Gaol Delivery, General Seſſions of the Peace, 'and inferior Court of Common Pleas, within the ſaid Province,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Conſtables of the reſpective Towns, within the ſeveral Counties of the ſaid Province, ſhall, at the General Seſſions of the Peace to be holden for each County, next after the Month of September in every Year, upon the firſt Day of the ſaid Seſſions, return and deliver to the Juſtices of the Peace, in open Court, a true Liſt, in Writing, of the Names and Places of Abode of all Perſons within the reſpective Towns for which they ſerve, or the Diſtricts thereof, qualified to ſerve upon Juries, with their Titles and Additions, between the Age of one and twenty Years and the Age of Seventy Years; which ſaid Juſtices, or any Two of them, at the ſaid Seſſions in the reſpective Counties, ſhall cauſe to be delivered a Duplicate of the aforeſaid Liſts, by the Clerk of the Peace of every County, to the Sheriffs, or their Deputies, within Ten Days after ſuch Seſſions; and cauſe each of the ſaid Liſts to be fairly entered into a Book, by the Clerk of the Peace, to be by him provided, and kept for that Purpoſe amongſt the Records of the ſaid Court; and no Sheriff ſhall impanel or return any Perſon or Perſons to which are to be entered in Books by the Clerks.

ſerve upon any Grand Jury, or Petit Jury, whatſoever, in any of the ſaid Courts that ſhall not be named or mentioned in ſuch Liſt: And, to prevent a Failure of Juſtice, through the Neglect of Conſtables to make ſuch Returns of Perſons qualified to ſerve on Juries, as in and by this Act is directed, the Clerks of the Peace of the ſaid ſeveral Counties are hereby required and commanded, twenty Days at leaſt next before the Month of September, yearly, and every Year, to iſſue forth Precepts or Warrants, under their reſpective Hands and Seals, to the reſpective Conſtables of the ſeveral Towns within the ſaid reſpective Counties, requiring them, and every of them, to make ſuch Return of Perſons qualified to ſerve upon Juries as hereby reſpectively directed; and every Conſtable failing at any Time to make and deliver ſuch Return to the Juſtices in open Court, as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit and incur the Penalty of five Pounds Sterling to his Majeſty, and his Succeſſors; to be recovered by Bill, Plaint, or Information, to be proſecuted in any of the Courts aforeſaid; and, in order that the Conſtables may be the better enabled to make complete Liſts of all Perſons qualified to ſerve on Juries, the Conſtables of the ſeveral Towns ſhall have free Liberty, at all ſeaſonable Times, upon Requeſt by them made to any Officer or Officers, who ſhall have in his or their Cuſtody any Book or Account of Rates or Taxes on the Freeholders or Inhabitants within ſuch reſpective Towns, to inſpect the ſame, and take from thence the Names of ſuch Perſons qualified to ſerve on Juries, dwelling within the reſpective Towns for which ſuch Liſts are to be given in and returned purſuant to this Act; and ſhall, in the Month of September, yearly, and every Year, upon Two or more Sundays, fix upon the Door of the Church, Chapel, and every other publick Place of religious Worſhip within their reſpective Precincts, a true and exact Liſt of all ſuch Perſons intended to be returned to the ſaid General Seſſions of the Peace, as qualified to ſerve on Juries, purſuant to the Directions of this Act; and leave at the ſame Time a Duplicate of ſuch Liſt with the Town Clerk of the ſaid Place, to be peruſed by the Freeholders and Inhabitants thereof, to the End that Notice may be given of Perſons duly qualified who are omitted, or of Perſons inſerted by Miſtake who ought to be omitted out of ſuch Liſts; and it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Juſtices, at the General Seſſions of the Peace to which the ſaid Liſts ſhall be ſo returned, upon due Proof made before them of any Perſon or Perſons duly qualified to ſerve on Juries being omitted in ſuch Liſts, or of any Perſon or Perſons being inſerted therein who ought to have been omitted, to order his or their Name or Names to be inſerted or ſtruck out, as the Caſe may require: And in caſe any Conſtable ſhall wilfully omit, out of ſuch Liſt, any Perſon or Perſons, whoſe Name or Names ought to be inſerted, or ſhall wilfully inſert any Perſon or Perſons who ought to be omitted, every Conſtable ſo offending, ſhall, for every Perſon ſo omitted or inſerted in ſuch Liſt, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, be fined by the ſaid Juſtices, in the ſaid General Seſſions of the Peace, in the Sum of forty Shillings Sterling.

Penalty of 5l. if Conſtables fail to deliver Liſts.

Penalty of 40s. if the Conſtables wilfully deliver in wrong Liſts.

Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe Default ſhall at any Time hereafter be made, by any Conſtable or Conſtables, to return Liſts of Perſons qualified to ſerve on Juries within any of the ſaid Towns to the ſaid Court of General Seſſions of the Peace; then, and in ſuch Caſe, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Sheriff of the County, in which ſuch Default ſhall be made, to ſummon and return to the ſeveral Courts aforeſaid, or any of them, ſuch and ſo many Perſons dwelling in ſuch Towns, or the Diſtricts thereof, qualified to ſerve on Juries, as he ſhall think fit to ſerve on Juries at ſuch reſpective Courts; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any-wiſe notwithſtanding.

In Default of Liſts by the Conſtable, Sheriff to ſummon Perſons qualified.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Summons of any Perſon to ſerve upon any of the Juries at the ſaid Courts, or any of them, ſhall be made by the Sheriff, or other Perſon, ten Days at the leaſt before the holding of every ſuch Court; and in caſe any Jurors, ſo to be ſummoned, be abſent from the uſual Place of his Habitation at the Time of ſuch Summons, Notice of ſuch Summons ſhall be given, by leaving a Note, in Writing, under the Hand of ſuch Sheriff, or Perſon, containing the Contents thereof, at the Dwelling-houſe of ſuch Juror, with ſome Perſon inhabiting in the ſame.

No Juror to ſerve twice in three Years.

'XV. And, in order that Sheriffs may be informed of the Perſons who have ſerved as Jurors,' it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Sheriff ſhall prepare and keep a Book, or Regiſter, wherein the Names of all ſuch Perſons who have ſerved as Jurors, with their Additions and Places of Abode, and the Times when, and the Courts in which they ſerved, ſhall be alphabetically entered and regiſtered; which Books or Regiſter ſhall, from Time to Time, be delivered over to the ſucceeding Sheriff of the ſaid County, within ten Days after he ſhall enter upon his Office; and every Juror, who ſhall attend and ſerve at any of the Courts aforeſaid, may, at the Expiration of the Time of holding every ſuch Court, upon Application to the Sheriff, or his Deputy, have a Certificate immediately, gratis, from the Sheriff, or his Deputy, teſtifying ſuch his Attendance and Service; which ſaid Certificate the ſaid Sheriff, or his Deputy, is required to give to every ſuch Juror.

Preamble. Act 14 Car. 2. recited.

'WHEREAS in and by an Act of Parliament, made in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of King 'Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuſes, in his Majeſty's 'Cuſtoms; reciting, amongſt other Things, That, in and by an Act of Parliament, made in the firſt 'Year of Queen Elizabeth of famous Memory, directing when and where Merchandiſe ſhould be landed, 'and Cuſtoms paid, it was, amongſt divers other Things, enacted and ordained, That no Goods, 'Wares, or Merchandiſe, ſhould be ſhipped or loaden aboard any Ship or Veſſel, or landed or diſcharged out of or from any Ship or Veſſel, but in or upon ſome ſuch open Place, Quay, or Wharf, 'Places, Quays, or Wharfs (except the Port of Hull), as her Highneſs, her Heirs and Succeſſors, 'ſhould therefore aſſign and appoint, by virtue of her Highneſs's Commiſſion or Commiſſions within the Port of London, and in all Ports, Creeks, Havens, or Roads: And alſo reciting, That, 'notwithſtanding the aforeſaid Act, there were ſome Ports, Creeks, and Places, where Cuſtomers, 'Collectors, and Comptrollers, and Searchers, and their Servants, had then, Time out of Mind, 'been reſident, to which no ſuch Commiſſions were ſent, nor Places, Quays, or Wharfs appointed, as by the ſaid Act was directed: And further reciting, That ſince that Time, by reaſon 'of the Alteration of Rivers, Streams, Channels, and Sands, ſome Places then appointed were become unfit and uſeleſs, and others much more convenient and commodious, as well for Traffick and

'Commerce as for landing and diſcharging, lading and ſhipping, of Goods, Wares, and Merchandiſe: It 'was therefore, by the ſaid recited Act, made in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty 'King Charles the Second, amongſt other Things enacted and ordained, That the King's Majeſty might, 'from Time to Time, by his Highneſs's Commiſſion or Commiſſions out of his Court of Exchequer, aſſign 'and appoint all ſuch further Places, Ports, Members and Creeks (except the Town of Hull), as 'ſhould be lawful for the landing and diſcharging, lading or ſhipping, of any Goods, Wares, or Mer-'chandiſe, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Port or Town of Berwick upon 'Tweed, and to what ancient and head Ports reſpectively ſuch Places, Members, or Creeks, ſhould be-'long and appertain: And where any ſuch Member, Creek, or Place, ſhould be ſo as aforeſaid appointed 'by virtue of the ſaid Commiſſion or Commiſſions, the Cuſtomer, Collector, Comptroller, and Searcher, 'of the Head Ports ſhould, by themſelves or their ſufficient Deputy or Deputies, Servant or Servants, 'reſide and inhabit, for the entering, clearing, and paſſing, ſhipping and diſcharging, of Ships, Goods, 'and Merchandiſe; and, by virtue of the aforeſaid Commiſſion or Commiſſions, might likewiſe ſet down 'and appoint the Extents, Bounds, and Limits, of every Port, Haven, or Creek, within his Majeſty's 'Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town and Port of Berwick, whereby the Extents, Li-'mits, and Privileges, of every Port, Haven, or Creek, might be aſcertained and known; and that it 'ſhould not be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever to lade or put, or cauſe to be laden or put, 'off or from any Quay, Wharf, or other Place, on the Land, into any Ship, Veſſel, Lighter, Boat, or 'Bottom, any Goods, Wares, or Merchandiſe whatſoever (Fiſh taken by his Majeſty's Subjects, Sea 'Coal, Stone, and Beſtials, only excepted), to be tranſported into any Place of the Parts beyond the 'Seas, or carried by Land into the Realm of Scotland, or to take up, diſcharge, or lay on Land, or cauſe 'or procure to be taken up, diſcharged, or laid on Land, out of any Boat, Lighter, Ship, Veſſel, or 'Bottom (being not in Leak or Wreck), any Goods, Wares, or Merchandiſe whatſoever (Fiſh taken by 'his Majeſty's Subjects, Beſtials, and Salt, only excepted), to be brought from any of the Parts beyond 'the Seas, or by Land from the Realm of Scotland, by way of Merchandiſe, but only upon ſuch open 'Place, Quay, or Wharf, Places, Quays, or Wharfs, as his Majeſty ſhould, from Time to Time, aſſign 'and appoint, by virtue of ſuch Commiſſion and Commiſſions as aforeſaid, in his Majeſty's Port of Lon-'don, and the Members and Liberties thereof, and in any Port, Place, Member, or Creek, within his 'Majeſty's Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town and Port of Berwick, without ſpecial 'Sufferance and Leave firſt had from the Commiſſioners and Officers of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, upon the 'Penalty of the Forfeiture of all ſuch Goods, Wares, and Merchandiſe, as by the laſt recited Act, re-'lation being thereunto had, it doth and may, amongſt other Things therein contained, more fully ap-'pear: And whereas, ſince the paſſing of the ſaid recited Acts, the Trade and Commerce of the Port of 'Kingſton upon Hull are greatly increaſed, and it is highly expedient, for the Security and Improvement 'of the publick Revenue, and for the Advantage of Commerce, that lawful Quays ſhould be eſtabliſhed 'at the ſaid Port, for the ſhipping and landing of Goods and Merchandiſe imported there, and exported 'from thence, in ſuch Manner as is herein-after expreſſed; which, by reaſon of the Exception in the 'ſaid before-recited Acts, cannot be done without the Interpoſition of Parliament;' may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, from Time to Time, by his and their Commiſſion or Commiſſions out of the Court of Exchequer in England, to aſſign and appoint ſuch open Places, Quays, or Wharfs, at Kingſton upon Hull, on the Weſt Side of the Harbour, and on the Walls adjoining the Town's Ditches, to be lawful open Places, Quays, and Wharfs, for the landing and diſcharging, lading and ſhipping, of all Goods, Wares, and Merchandiſes, exported to, or imported from, foreign Parts, and to ſet down, appoint, and ſettle, the Extents, Bounds, Metes, and Limits thereof, ſubject nevertheleſs to ſuch Proviſions and Regulations as are herein-after in that Behalf expreſſed or declared; and that it ſhall not be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever to lade or put, or cauſe to be laden or put, off or from any Quay, Wharf, or other Place, on the Land within the ſaid Port of Kingſton upon Hull, into any Ship, Veſſel, Lighter, Boat, or Bottom, any Goods, Wares, or Merchandiſe whatſoever (except Fiſh taken by his Majeſty's Subjects, Sea Coal, Stone, and Beſtials), to be tranſported into any Place beyond the Seas, or to take up, diſcharge, or lay on Land, or cauſe or procure to be taken up, diſcharged, or laid on Land, out of any Boat, Lighter, Ship, Veſſel, or Bottom (being not in Leak or Wreck), any Goods, Wares, or Merchandiſe whatſoever (Fiſh taken by his Majeſty's Subjects, Beſtials, and Salt, only excepted), to be brought from any of the Parts beyond the Seas, by way of Merchandiſe, but only upon ſuch open Place, Quay, or Wharf, Places, Quays, or Wharfs, as his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, ſhall, from Time to Time, aſſign and appoint, by virtue of ſuch Commiſſion and Commiſſions as aforeſaid, at Kingſton upon Hull, on the Weſt Side of the Harbour, and on the Walls adjoining the Town's Ditches, or off, from, or upon, ſuch Quays or Wharfs as ſhall be built and provided in purſuance of this Act, in Manner herein-after mentioned, without ſpecial Sufferance or Leave firſt had from the Commiſſioners or Officers of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, upon the Penalty of the Forfeiture of all ſuch Goods, Wares, and Merchandiſes, ſo laden or diſcharged, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, or the Value thereof; any Thing in the before-recited Acts, or any other Law, Uſage, or Cuſtom, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

No Perſon to ſhip Goods for Exportation;

Exception,

Proprietors of Staiths on the West Side of the River allowed to make Wharfs.

'prietors thereof have, for Time immemorial, landed and diſcharged, laden and ſhipped, Goods, Wares, 'and Merchandiſe: And whereas it is reaſonable that this Privilege ſhould be continued to the Proprietors 'of the ſaid Staiths;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That when and as ſoon as the Baſon or Dock herein-after mentioned, and directed to be made, ſhall be fit for the Reception of loaded Ships, and not ſooner, it ſhall be lawful for all and every the Proprietors of the ſaid Staiths to build and make, at their own Expence and Charge, commodious Quays or Wharfs oppoſite to their ſaid Staiths reſpectively, to be erected upon Piles of Wood, and not otherwiſe, and to project into the Haven of the ſaid River Hull fifteen Feet, to be open at all Times to the Officers of his Majeſty's Revenue, by a free and clear Communication with the common Staiths adjoining; on which Quays or Wharfs, when ſo made and erected, it ſhall be lawful to ſhip off, land, and diſcharge, all Goods called Sufferance Goods; that is to ſay, Lead, Hemp, Iron, Flax, Yarn, Timber, Raff, and all other Goods and Merchandiſe whatever, which are permitted to be ſhipped off or landed in the Port of London, as Sufferance Goods, and under the like Regulations.

'ther the ſaid Innkeepers and Victuallers can at preſent carry on their Trades or Callings without incur-
'ring the Pains, Penalties, and Diſabilities impoſed and inflicted by ſeveral Acts of Parliament for ſell-
'ing Ale, Beer, Wine, and Spirituous Liquors, without Licences, which may involve themſelves and 'Families in utter Ruin, although they have not been guilty of any Fault or Neglect on their Part: To 'the End therefore that the ſaid Innkeepers and Victuallers may be indemnified, and carry on their ſaid
'Trades or Callings, without being ſubject to ſuch Pains, Penalties, and Diſabilities, as aforeſaid,' may it pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Licences granted to the Innkeepers and Victuallers of the Hundred or Diviſion of Godley, in the County of Surrey, on the ſaid firſt Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, as aforeſaid, ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby declared to be good, valid, and effectual in the Law, for the ſeveral Purpoſes therein reſpectively expreſſed, and to all other Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

The Licences granted in 1773 to be valid, for the Purpoſes expreſſed.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all perſonal Actions and Suits, Indictments, Informations, and all Proſecutions and Proceedings whatſoever, which have been or ſhall be proſecuted or commenced againſt any of the ſaid Innkeepers or Victuallers, for ſelling Ale, Beer, Wine, or Spirituous Liquors, without a proper Licence, ſince the ſaid firſt Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, be, are, and ſhall be, diſcharged and made void by virtue of this Act.

All Suits commenced againſt the Innkeepers of Godley, for ſelling Beer, Wines, &c. ſince 1773, are hereby made void.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that no Perſon ſhall be intitled to, or receive any Benefit or Indemnification from, this Act, unleſs he ſhall, before the tenth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, or before the Expiration of the Term for which their preſent Licences are reſpectively granted, apply for and obtain ſuch Licence or Licences as are by Law required for the ſelling of Wine or Spirituous Liquors; which Licence or Licences his Majeſty's Commiſſioners of Exciſe, and his Majeſty's Commiſſioners appointed for managing the Duties ariſing by Stamps on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, and all other Perſons authoriſed and impowered by them reſpectively, are hereby authoriſed and required to grant, in the ſame Manner as the ſame ought to have been granted in caſe the ſaid Licences for ſelling Ale and Beer had been originally good, valid, and effectual in the Law as aforeſaid.

No Perſon to be intitled to this Benefit, unleſs he obtains a legal Licence before July 10, 1774; which the Commiſſioners of Exciſe and Stamp Duties are required to grant.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Publick Act; and ſhall be judicially taken Notice of as ſuch by all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons, without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

'this Kingdom, and the Allowance of the ſeveral Bounties thereon, ſhould be governed and regulated,
'according to the real Average Prices of ſuch Corn and Grain, and Oat-meal, at the reſpective Times
'when, and Places from whence, the ſame ſhall be ſhipped for Exportation:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, the Prices of Corn and Grain, and Oat-meal, exported from this Kingdom, ſhall be regulated and governed by the Average Prices at which ſuch Corn or Grain, and Oat-meal, ſhall be reſpectively ſold in the publick Market, at or neareſt to the Port or Place from whence ſuch Corn or Grain, or Oat-meal, ſhall be intended to be exported, on the laſt Market-day preceding the ſhipping of ſuch Corn or Grain, and the reſpective Bounties granted by the ſaid recited Act ſhall, in like Manner, be paid and allowed, according to ſuch Prices, by the ſame Rules and Regulations, and ſubject to the ſame Securities, Reſtrictions, Oaths, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as the former Bounties on Corn or Grain exported were paid and allowed, and were ſubject and liable to, before the making the ſaid recited Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament; any Thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Nothing contained to prohibit the Exportation of Corn or Grain if ſhipped 20 Days from the Entry thereof.

CAP. LXV.

An Act to alter and amend an Act, paſſed in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second (intituled, An Act for annexing certain forfeited Eſtates in Scotland to the Crown unalienably; and for making Satisfaction to the lawful Creditors thereupon; and to eſtabliſh a Method of managing the ſame, and applying the Rents and Profits thereof for the better civilizing and improving the Highlands of Scotland, and preventing Diſorders there for the future); ſo far as the ſame relates to the granting Leaſes of the ſaid Eſtates.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the twenty-fifth Year of his late Majeſty's Reign (intituled, An Act for annexing certain forfeited Eſtates in Scotland to the Crown unalienably; and for making Satisfaction to the lawful Creditors thereupon; and to eſtabliſh a Method of managing the ſame, and applying the Rents and Profits thereof for the better civilizing and improving the Highlands of Scotland, and preventing Diſorders there for the future); it is, amongſt other Things, enacted, That the Commiſſioners and Truſtees to be appointed by his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall have Power to grant Leaſes of the ſaid Eſtates, or any Part thereof, in Manner therein ſpecified; but that no Perſon ſhall be capable of taking or enjoying any Lands or Tenements, other than Mines or Fiſhings, by virtue of ſuch Leaſe or Leaſes, of greater annual Rent than twenty Pounds at the utmoſt: And whereas the Commiſſioners and Truſtees, appointed by his Majeſty, finding that many Farms of the ſaid Eſtates, formerly let at or under twenty Pounds of yearly Rent, have, by Incloſing and other Improvements, and by the Increaſe of the Price of Horned Cattle, and other Produce of the ſaid Farms, become more valuable, ſo as they may afford Rent above twenty Pounds yearly, and which the Tenants or others are willing to pay, were the Commiſſioners enabled to grant Leaſes of ſuch Farms at a higher Rent than twenty Pounds: And whereas the dividing Farms, which have been let at the Rent of twenty Pounds, or under, and might now, or may hereafter, be let at a higher Rent than twenty Pounds, would be difficult and incommodious, eſpecially in the Caſe of incloſed Farms, and would create much Expence in building Houſes upon inconvenient Farms:' For Remedy whereof, may it pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners and Truſtees, and ſuch Commiſſioners and Truſtees as ſhall be from Time to Time nominated and appointed by his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, or a Quorum of them, to let and grant Leaſes of Farms at a higher Rent than twenty Pounds, when they ſhall find it proper, and which Leaſes ſhall be good and effectual to the Leſſees; any Thing in the before-recited Act of the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Preamble. Act 25 Geo. 2.

The Commiſſioners appointed by the ſaid Act to grant Leaſes of Farms at a higher Rent than 20l.

II. Provided always, That no ſuch Leaſe or Leaſes to be made or granted at a higher Rent than twenty Pounds, ſhall comprize Lands which were let for more Rent than twenty Pounds, at any Time preceding the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty-ſix.

Sums, as Rewards, given to Authors,

'II. And, for a due and ſufficient Encouragement to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall diſcover any Me'thod or Methods for finding the ſaid Longitude,' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the firſt Author or Authors, Diſcoverer or Diſcoverers, of each and every ſuch Method or Methods, his or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, ſhall be intitled to, and have the Rewards or Sums of Money herein-after mentioned; that is to ſay, In caſe the Method propoſed ſhall be, by Means of a Time-keeper, the Principles whereof have not hitherto been made publick, to the Reward or Sum of five thouſand Pounds, if ſuch Method determines the ſaid Longitude to one Degree of a great Circle, or ſixty geographical Miles; to the Reward or Sum of ſeven thouſand five hundred Pounds, if it determines the ſame to Two-thirds of that Diſtance; and to the Reward or Sum of ten thouſand Pounds, if it determines the ſame to one Half of the ſaid Diſtance: Which reſpective Rewards ſhall be due and paid when ſuch Method ſhall have been ſufficiently tried by the following Experiments and Voyages to be made and performed by ſuch Perſons, and under ſuch Reſtrictions, as the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Diſcovery of Longitude at Sea, reſpectively conſtituted by the above-recited Acts, or the major Part of them, ſhall think fit to appoint and direct; (that is to ſay) When and ſo ſoon as two or more Time-keepers, of the ſame Conſtruction, ſtruction, ſhall have been tried at the ſame Time, for the Space of twelve Months, at the Royal Obſervatory at Greenwich, then in two Voyages round the Iſland of Great Britain, in contrary Directions, and in ſuch other Voyages to different Climates as the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall think fit to direct and appoint; and after their Return from ſuch Voyages, or any of them, for ſuch longer Time, at the ſaid Obſervatory, not exceeding twelve Months, as the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall judge neceſſary; and alſo when and ſo ſoon as the ſaid Commiſſioners, or two-thirds of them, at the leaſt, ſhall, after ſuch Experiments and Voyages have been made and performed as aforeſaid, have declared and determined that ſuch Method is generally practicable and uſeful, and ſufficiently exact to determine the Longitude at Sea within the Degrees or Limits aforeſaid, in all Voyages for the Space of ſix Months (Impediments from cloudy and hazy Weather excepted); and alſo when and ſo ſoon as the Principles and Practice of ſuch Method are fully diſcovered and explained to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or two-thirds of them at leaſt; and ſuch Author or Authors, Diſcoverer or Diſcoverers, ſhall have delivered up and aſſigned over to the ſaid Commiſſioners, for the Uſe of the Publick, the abſolute Property of ſuch Time-keepers as ſhall have been tried by ſuch Experiments and Voyages as aforeſaid, together with all Places, Deſcriptions, Theories, and Explanations, belonging or relating to the ſame, and which ſhall contain the Whole of ſuch Diſcovery of the Longitude; and in caſe the Method propoſed ſhall be by Means of improved Solar and Lunar Tables; then, and in ſuch Caſe, the Author or Authors of ſuch improved Solar and Lunar Tables, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, ſhall be intitled to and have the Reward or Sum of five thouſand Pounds, if ſuch Solar and Lunar Tables ſhall prove ſufficiently exact to ſhew the Diſtance of the Moon from the Sun and Stars in the Heavens, within fifteen Seconds of a Degree, anſwering to about ſeven Minutes of Longitude, after making an Allowance of half a Degree for the Errors of Obſervation; and when it ſhall appear to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or two-thirds of them, at leaſt, that ſuch Tables are conſtructed entirely upon the Principles of Gravitation laid down by Sir Iſaac Newton, (except with reſpect to thoſe Elements which muſt neceſſarily be taken from aſtronomical Obſervations), and alſo when the Truth of ſuch Tables ſhall have been further confirmed and proved by Compariſon with a Series of aſtronomical Obſervations made during a Period of eighteen Years and a Half, which is deemed the Period of the Irregularities of the Lunar Motions; which Reward ſhall be due and paid, when the ſaid Commiſſioners, or two-thirds of them, at leaſt, ſhall have declared and determined, that ſuch Tables are ſufficiently exact, to ſhew the Diſtance of the Moon from the Sun and Stars in the Heavens, within the Limits above mentioned; and alſo when the Author or Authors of ſuch improved Solar and Lunar Tables, his or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, ſhall have delivered up, and aſſigned over to the ſaid Commiſſioners, for the Uſe of the Publick, the abſolute Right and Property to and in the ſame, together with the Theory relating thereunto; and in caſe any other Method ſhall be propoſed for finding the Longitude at Sea beſides thoſe before mentioned, that then, and in ſuch Caſe, the firſt Author or Authors, Diſcoverer or Diſcoverers, of any ſuch Method, his or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, ſhall be intitled to and have the Reward or Sum of five thouſand Pounds, if it ſhall determine the ſaid Longitude within one Degree of a great Circle, or ſixty geographical Miles; to the Reward or Sum of ſeven thouſand five hundred Pounds, if it ſhall determine the ſame to Two-thirds of that Diſtance; and to the Reward or Sum of ten thouſand Pounds, if it ſhall determine the ſame to one Half of the ſame Diſtance; which reſpective Rewards ſhall be due and paid, ſo ſoon as the ſaid Commiſſioners, or Two-thirds of them, at leaſt, ſhall, after proper Trial has been made by their Appointment and Direction, have determined that ſuch Method ſhall be generally practicable and uſeful for finding the Longitude at Sea within the reſpective Limits above mentioned.

when to be paid.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That when and ſo ſoon as any ſuch Method or Methods, for the Diſcovery of the ſaid Longitude, ſhall be tried, as before mentioned, and found practicable and uſeful at Sea, and ſufficiently exact to determine the Longitude within any of the Degrees or Limits aforeſaid, the ſaid Commiſſioners, or Two-thirds of them, ſhall certify the ſame, under their Hands and Seals, to the Commiſſioners of the Navy for the Time being, together with the Name or Names of the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall be the Author or Authors of ſuch Method or Methods; and upon the Receipt of ſuch Certificate, the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Navy are hereby authoriſed and required to make out a Bill or Bills upon the Treaſurer of the Navy, for the reſpective Sum or Sums of Money to which the Author or Authors of ſuch Propoſals, his or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, ſhall be intitled by virtue of this Act; which Sum or Sums the ſaid Treaſurer is hereby required to pay to the ſaid Author or Authors, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns accordingly, out of any Money that may be in Hands unapplied to the Uſe of the Navy, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Treaſurer of the Navy to pay the Sums, or Rewards, to the Authors.

'IV. And whereas the ſeveral Sums of Money granted by the above now-recited Acts, towards making 'Experiments of Propoſals for diſcovering the Longitude at Sea, and for improving the Lunar Tables, 'and making other Diſcoveries or Improvements uſeful to Navigation, are, by reaſon of the ſeveral Pay-'ments made by the Treaſurer of the Navy, purſuant to the Directions of the ſaid Acts, not only ex-'pended, but, moreover, ſeveral Debts have been incurred, and are now growing due for Services tending 'to the Benefit of Navigation, and, more particularly, for defraying the Expence of the two Obſervers 'who have been ſent out to make nautical and aſtronomical Obſervations in the Southern Hemiſphere: 'And whereas it is highly neceſſary that the ſaid Debts ſhould be diſcharged, and that ingenious Perſons 'ſhould be encouraged to make further Diſcoveries and Improvements uſeful to Navigation;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the above-mentioned Commiſſioners for the Diſcovery of Longitude at Sea ſhall and may certify the Amount of ſuch Debts, together with the Names of the Perſons to whom the ſame ſhall be reſpectively due, under their Hands and Seals, to the Commiſſioners of the Navy, who are hereby authoriſed and required to make out a Bill or Bills upon the Treaſurer of the Navy for ſuch Sum or Sums of Money, as may be neceſſary for diſcharging the ſaid Debts; which Sum or Sums of Money the ſaid Treaſurer is hereby required to pay to the Perſon or Perſons to whom the ſame ſhall be reſpectively due, out of any Money which ſhall be in his the ſaid Treaſurer's Hands unapplied as aforeſaid.

They are alſo to receive Propoſals for diſcovering the Longitude,

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Diſcovery of Longitude at Sea, or any five or more of them, ſhall have full Power and Authority to hear and receive any Propoſal or Propoſals that ſhall be made to them for diſcovering the ſaid Longitude, or for making any other uſeful Improvement in Navigation; and in caſe the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them, ſhall be ſo far ſatisfied of the Probability of any ſuch Diſcovery or Improvement as to think it proper to cauſe Experiments to be made thereof, they ſhall certify the ſame, together with the Names of the Author or Authors of ſuch Propoſal or Propoſals, under their Hands and Seals, to the Commiſſioners of the Navy, who are hereby authoriſed and required to make out a Bill or Bills upon the Treaſurer of the Navy for any ſuch Sum or Sums of Money as the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Diſcovery of Longitude at Sea, or any five or more of them, ſhall think neceſſary for making ſuch Experiments; which Sum or Sums the Treaſurer of the Navy is hereby required to pay immediately to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be appointed by the ſaid Commiſſioners to make thoſe Experiments out of any Money which ſhall be in his the ſaid Treaſurer's Hands unapplied as aforeſaid.

and certify the ſame, with the Names of the Authors, to the Commiſſioners of the Navy.

Perſons making uſeful Diſcoveries, to receive leſs Rewards, agreeable to the Judgment of the Commiſſioners.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall make any Diſcovery for finding the Longitude at Sea, which, though not of ſo great Uſe as to be intitled to any of the great Rewards above ſpecified, ſhall nevertheleſs be adjudged by the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Diſcovery of Longitude at Sea, or the major Part of them, to be of conſiderable Uſe to the Publick, or ſhall make any other Diſcovery or Diſcoveries, Improvement or Improvements, uſeful to Navigation; then, and in ſuch Caſe, ſuch Perſon or Perſons, his or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, ſhall, from Time to Time, have and receive ſuch leſs Reward or Sum or Sums of Money as the ſaid Commiſſioners, or the major Part of them, ſhall think reaſonable; and certify accordingly, under their Hands and Seals, to the Commiſſioners of the Navy, who are hereby authoriſed and required to make out a Bill or Bills upon the Treaſurer of the Navy for any ſuch Sum or Sums of Money which the ſaid Treaſurer is hereby authoriſed and required to pay immediately to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, his or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, out of any Money that ſhall be in his the ſaid Treaſurer's Hands unapplied as aforeſaid.

'XLIII. And whereas, under former Acts, Creditors have been put to great Expences and Trouble 'in attending every Seſſion and Adjournment, during the whole Continuance of the Act, to oppoſe the 'Diſcharge of Priſoners clearly excluded from any Benefit under the ſaid reſpective Acts, but who, after 'having been before one Seſſion heard, and refuſed a Diſcharge, to haraſs their Creditors, conſtantly 'gave freſh Notices for each ſubſequent Seſſion and Adjournment of their intended Application to be diſcharged;' to remedy which, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Caſes whatever, the Determination of the Juſtices in Seſſion, or Adjournment, ſhall be final to all Intents and Purpoſes, unleſs the Priſoner ſhall, during the Continuance of this Act, get rid of the Objection or Objections for which they refuſed his Diſcharge; and, that the ſame may be clear and certain, the Juſtices are hereby required to ſtate the Objections why ſuch Priſoner's Diſcharge is refuſed by them; and, in all Caſes whatever, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Juſtices, at any ſubſequent Seſſion, or Adjournment, upon Application from the Priſoner, upon due Proof on Oath made to them by two or more credible Witneſſes (and which Oath they are hereby impowered to adminiſter), of each Objection or Objections being removed, and on Proof of Notice ſerved, at leaſt ten Days previous to ſuch Application on the Creditor or Creditors who before oppoſed his Diſcharge, and of Notice likewiſe inſerted in the Gazette, in Manner before directed by this Act, to order ſuch Priſoner to be brought before them, and if they ſhall then be of Opinion the ſaid Priſoner is intitled to the Benefit of this Act, to order him to be diſcharged, he taking the Oath, and in all other Reſpects conforming to the Directions of this Act.

Aſſignees may apply for further Examination of Priſoner, touching the Diſcovery of his Effects, &c.

'XLVI. And whereas many Perſons, who may take the Benefit of this Act, have been great Dealers, 'or otherwiſe engaged in large Tranſactions, whereby they may be intitled to ſundry and great Debts 'and Demands, of various and intricate Natures, and they may be intitled to Equities of Redemption of 'Eſtates, ſubject and liable to Mortgages, Judgments, or other Incumbrances, or to Reverſions, Re'mainders, or other contingent Eſtates in Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or to other Truſts or 'Intereſts in Eſtates, both Real and Perſonal, which may not be ſufficiently deſcribed or diſcovered in 'the Schedule or Inventory before directed to be delivered in upon Oath, as aforeſaid, or which may 'want his Aid or Aſſiſtance to adjuſt, make out, recover, or manage, for the Benefit of the Creditors;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the reſpective Aſſignees of the Eſtate and Effects of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners who ſhall obtain his, her, or their Diſcharge, in purſuance of this Act, or any other Perſon or Perſons, duly authoriſed by them for that Purpoſe, from Time to Time, to apply to any two or more of the Juſtices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Town, Place, or Liberty, where ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be then reſiding, thereby deſiring that ſuch Perſon or Perſons may be further examined as to any Matters or Things relating to his, her, or their Eſtate or Effects; whereupon ſuch Juſtices ſhall ſend for, or call before them, ſuch Perſon or Perſons, by ſuch Warrant, Summons, Ways, or Means, as they ſhall think fit; and, upon ſuch Perſon's appearing, ſhall examine him, her, or them, as well upon Oath as otherwiſe, as to ſuch Matters and Things, as ſuch Aſſignee ſhall deſire, relating to the Eſtate and Effects of ſuch Perſon or Perſons; and if any Perſon or Perſons (on Payment, or Tender of Payment, of ſuch reaſonable Charges as ſuch Juſtices ſhall judge ſufficient), ſhall neglect or refuſe to come and appear, not having a lawful Excuſe, to be made known to ſuch Juſtices, and by them allowed, or, being come before them, ſhall refuſe to be ſworn, or to anſwer to all ſuch Queſtions as by ſuch Juſtices ſhall be put to him, her, or them, relating to the Diſcovery of his, her, or their Eſtate or Effects ſo veſted, or intended to be veſted, in ſuch Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, or in ſuch Aſſignees as aforeſaid, that then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for ſuch Juſtices, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to apprehend ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo offending as aforeſaid, and him, her, or them, to commit to the common Gaol, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, until ſuch Time as he, ſhe, or they, ſhall ſubmit him, her, or themſelves, to ſuch Juſtices, and anſwer upon Oath to all ſuch lawful Queſtions as ſhall, by ſuch Juſtices, be put to him, her, or them, for the Purpoſes aforeſaid.

CAP. LXXXII.

An Act for explaining and altering an Act, made in the thirteenth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act to explain and amend, and reduce into one Act of Parliament, the general Laws now in being for regulating of Turnpike Roads in that Part of Great Britain called England, and for other Purpoſes; ſo far as the ſame relates to the Payment of additional Tolls at Weighing Engines, and the Number of Horſes to be uſed in Carriages drawn on Turnpike Roads; and for allowing certain Exemptions with reſpect to Weight and Payment of Toll in particular Caſes.

Preamble. Act 13 Geo. 3.

'WHEREAS much Inconvenience has been found to ariſe from the heavy additional Tolls authoriſed and directed to be taken by an Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act

'to

'to explain and amend, and reduce into one Act of Parliament, the general Laws now in being for regulating 'of Turnpike Roads in that Part of Great Britain called England, and for other Purposes, from Persons 'who have in Waggons, Carts, or Carriages, carried greater Weights than are thereby allowed upon 'Turnpike Roads: And whereas it is expedient and necessary to make some Alteration with respect to 'such additional Tolls, in order to prevent innocent Persons from suffering unwarily or inadvertently 'thereby: And whereas the permitting any Waggon, Cart, or Carriage, when weighed at any weighing 'Engine, to be drawn by an unlimited Number of Horses, has been found, on Trial, to be inconve-'nient, and liable to Abuse;' for Remedy thereof, may it please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said before-recited Act, as impowers the Trustees of any Turnpike Road to receive and take the additional Toll of twenty Shillings for every Hundred Weight, which any Waggon, Cart, or Carriage, together with its Loading, shall weigh at any Weighing Engine, over and above the Weight allowed thereby; and also so much thereof as permits any Waggon, Cart, or Carriage, after having been weighed as aforesaid, to be drawn by an unlimited Number of Horses; shall be, and is hereby repealed.

Part of the said Act repealed.

Additional Tolls to be hereafter taken for extra Weights on Waggons.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, it shall and may be lawful for all Trustees, appointed by any Act or Acts of Parliament, for the Repair of any Turnpike Road within that Part of Great Britain called England, or any five or more of them, or for any Person or Persons properly impowered by any five or more of them, to receive and take, over and above the Tolls already granted, or hereafter to be granted, the following Sums of Money, as additional Tolls for every Hundred Weight of one hundred and twelve Pounds to the Hundred, which any Waggon, Cart, or Carriage, together with the Loading thereof, shall weigh at any Weighing Engine erected, or to be erected, over and above the Weights by the before-recited Act allowed to each of them respectively; that is to say, For the First and Second hundred of such over Weight, the Sum of three-pence for each hundred; for every hundred of such over Weight above two hundred, and not exceeding five hundred, the Sum of Six-pence; for every hundred of such over Weight above five hundred, and not exceeeding ten hundred, the Sum of two Shillings and Sixpence; for every Hundred of such over Weight above ten hundred, and not exceeding fifteen hundred, the Sum of five Shillings; and for every Hundred of such over Weight above fifteen hundred, the Sum of twenty Shillings: Which said additional Toll or Duty, hereby granted and made payable at any Weighing Engine, as aforesaid, shall and may be levied and recovered in any of the Cases aforesaid, upon any Person liable thereto, or upon his or her Goods or Chattels, who shall, after Demand made thereof, refuse or neglect to pay the same, in such Manner as any other Toll or Duty payable at the same Toll-gate or Bar, where any such Engine shall be erected, is or shall be by Law to be levied and recovered; and the Money arising from such additional Toll or Duty shall be applied to the Repairs of the Turnpike Road where the same shall be collected.

No Waggon, Cart, or Carriage, employed in Husbandry, to be weighed.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said first Day of August, no Waggon, Cart, or Carriage, employed only in Husbandry, or carrying only Manure or Lime for the Improvement of Land, or Hay, Straw, Fodder, or Corn unthreshed (excepting Hay or Straw carried for Sale), shall be weighed at any Weighing Engine now erected, or hereafter to be erected; any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Trustees within 10 Miles of London, &c. may lower the Tolls.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Trustees of the several Turnpike Roads within ten Miles of the Cities of London and Westminster, and the Borough of Southwark, may, and they are hereby impowered, at their General or Quarterly Meetings, to lower the several additional Tolls hereby directed to be taken, as aforesaid, for over Weight, in such Manner as to them shall seem fit and convenient.

Waggons, Carts, &c. moving upon Rollers to pass Toll free for five Years,

'V. And whereas the Exemption from Toll in the before-recited Act, given to Waggons, Carts, and 'Carriages, moving upon Rollers of the Breadth of sixteen Inches on each Side thereof, with flat Sur-'faces, during the Term of one Year only, is found not to be a sufficient Encouragement to induce Per-'sons to erect and make use of the same;' be it therefore enacted, That all such Waggons, Carts, and Carriages, shall, for and during the Term of five Years, to be computed from the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, be permitted to pass or be drawn upon any Turnpike Road Toll free; any Law to the contrary thereof in any-wise notwithstanding: And from and after the Expiration of such Term, then to pay Half Toll only, as directed by the before-recited Act.

and after that Term to pay only Half Toll.

nor to make void other Rights formerly granted,

'IV. And whereas the Proviſions, made by the ſaid Proclamation, in reſpect to the Civil Government 'of the ſaid Province of Quebec, and the Powers and Authorities given to the Governor and other Civil 'Officers of the ſaid Province, by the Grants and Commiſſions iſſued in conſequence thereof, have been 'found, upon Experience, to be inapplicable to the State and Circumſtances of the ſaid Province, the In'habitants whereof amounted, at the Conqueſt, to above ſixty-five thouſand Perſons profeſſing the Re'ligion of the Church of Rome, and enjoying an eſtabliſhed Form of Conſtitution and Syſtem of Laws, 'by which their Perſons and Property had been protected, governed, and ordered, for a long Series of 'Years, from the firſt Eſtabliſhment of the ſaid Province of Canada;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Proclamation, ſo far as the ſame relates to the ſaid Province of Quebec, and the Commiſſion under the Authority whereof the Government of the ſaid Province is at preſent adminiſtered, and all and every the Ordinance and Ordinances made by the Governor and Council of Quebec for the Time being, relative to the Civil Government and Adminiſtration of Juſtice in the ſaid Province, and all Commiſſions to Judges and other Officers thereof, be, and the ſame are hereby revoked, annulled, and made void, from and after the firſt Day of May, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-five.

Inhabitants of Quebec may profeſs the Romiſh Religion, ſubject to the King's Supremacy, as by Act 1 Eliz.; and the Clergy enjoy their accuſtomed Dues.

Provided nevertheleſs, That it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, to make ſuch Proviſion out of the reſt of the ſaid accuſtomed Dues and Rights, for the Encouragement of the Proteſtant Religion, and for the Maintenance and Support of a Proteſtant Clergy within the ſaid Province, as he or they ſhall, from Time to Time, think neceſſary and expedient.

Proviſion may be made by his Majeſty for the Clergy.

Support of the Proteſtant

'racies, and Attempts whatſoever, which ſhall be made againſt his Perſon, Crown, and Dignity; and I 'will do my utmoſt Endeavour to diſcloſe and make known to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, all
'Treaſons, and traitorous Conſpiracies, and Attempts, which I ſhall know to be againſt him, or any of 'them; and all this I do ſwear without any Equivocation, mental Evaſion, or ſecret Reſervation, and 'renouncing all Pardons and Diſpenſations from any Power or Perſon whomſoever to the contrary.
'So help me GOD.'

Perſons refuſing the Oath to be ſubject to the Penalties by Act 1 Eliz.

And every ſuch Perſon, who ſhall neglect or refuſe to take the ſaid Oath before mentioned, ſhall incur and be liable to the ſame Penalties, Forfeitures, Diſabilities, and Incapacities, as he would have incurred and been liable to for neglecting or refuſing to take the Oath required by the ſaid Statute paſſed in the firſt Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth.

His Majeſty's Canadian Subjects (religious Orders excepted) may hold all their Poſſeſſions, &c. and in Matters of Controverſy, Reſort may be had to the Laws of Canada for the Deciſion.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all his Majeſty's Canadian Subjects within the Province of Quebec, the religious Orders and Communities only excepted, may alſo hold and enjoy their Property and Poſſeſſions, together with all Cuſtoms and Uſages relative thereto, and all other their Civil Rights, in as large, ample, and beneficial Manner, as if the ſaid Proclamation, Commiſſions, Ordinances, and other Acts and Inſtruments, had not been made, and as may conſiſt with their Allegiance to his Majeſty, and Subjection to the Crown and Parliament of Great Britain; and that in all Matters of Controverſy, relative to Property and Civil Rights, Reſort ſhall be had to the Laws of Canada, as the Rule for the Deciſion of the ſame; and all Cauſes that ſhall hereafter be inſtituted in any of the Courts of Juſtice, to be appointed within and for the ſaid Province by his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall, with reſpect to ſuch Property and Rights, be determined agreeably to the ſaid Laws and Cuſtoms of Canada, until they ſhall be varied or altered by any Ordinances that ſhall, from Time to Time, be paſſed in the ſaid Province by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief, for the Time being, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Legiſlative Council of the ſame, to be appointed in Manner herein-after mentioned.

Not to extend to Lands granted by his Majeſty in common Soccage.

IX. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to any Lands that have been granted by his Majeſty, or ſhall hereafter be granted by his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to be holden in free and common Soccage.

Criminal Law of England to be continued in the Province.

'XI. And whereas the Certainty and Lenity of the Criminal Law of England, and the Benefits and 'Advantages reſulting from the Uſe of it, have been ſenſibly felt by the Inhabitants, from an Experience
'of more than nine Years, during which it has been uniformly adminiſtered;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſame ſhall continue to be adminiſtered, and ſhall be obſerved as Law in the Province of Quebec, as well in the Deſcription and Quality of the Offence as in the Method of Proſecution and Trial; and the Puniſhments and Forfeitures thereby inflicted to the Excluſion of every other Rule of Criminal Law, or Mode of Proceeding thereon, which did or might prevail in the ſaid Province before the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-four; any Thing in this Act to the contrary thereof in any reſpect notwithſtanding; ſubject nevertheleſs to ſuch Alterations and Amendments as the Governor, Lieutenant-governor, or Commander in Chief for the Time being, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the legiſlative Council of the ſaid Province, hereafter to be appointed, ſhall, from Time to Time, cauſe to be made therein, in Manner herein-after directed.

which Council may make Ordinances, with Conſent of the Governor,

The Council are not impowered to lay Taxes, publick Roads or Buildings excepted, XIII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend to authoriſe or impower the ſaid legiſlative Council to lay any Taxes or Duties within the ſaid Province, ſuch Rates and Taxes only excepted as the Inhabitants of any Town or Diſtrict within the ſaid Province may be authoriſed by the ſaid Council to aſſeſs, levy, and apply, within the ſaid Town or Diſtrict, for the Purpoſe of making Roads, erecting and repairing publick Buildings, or for any other Purpoſe reſpecting the local Convenience and Oeconomy of ſuch Town or Diſtrict.

Ordinances made to be laid before his Majeſty for his Approbation.

XV. Provided alſo, That no Ordinance touching Religion, or by which any Puniſhment may be inflicted greater than Fine or Impriſonment for three Months, ſhall be of any Force or Effect, until the ſame ſhall have received his Majeſty's Approbation. Ordinances touching Religion not to be in Force without his Majeſty's Approbation.

XVI. Provided alſo, That no Ordinance ſhall be paſſed at any Meeting of the Council where leſs than a Majority of the whole Council is preſent, or at any Time except between the firſt Day of January and the firſt Day of May, unleſs upon ſome urgent Occaſion, in which Caſe every Member thereof reſident at Quebec, or within fifty Miles thereof, ſhall be perſonally ſummoned by the Governor, or, in his Abſence, by the Lieutenant-governor, or Commander in Chief for the Time being, to attend the ſame. When Ordinances are to be paſſed by a Majority.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to prevent or hinder his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, by his or their Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, from erecting, conſtituting, and appointing, ſuch Courts of Criminal, Civil, and Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction within and for the ſaid Province of Quebec, and appointing, from Time to Time, the Judges and Officers thereof, as his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall think neceſſary and proper for the Circumſtances of the ſaid Province. Nothing to hinder his Majeſty to conſtitute Courts of Criminal, Civil, and Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction.

Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to repeal or make void, within the ſaid Province of Quebec, any Act or Acts of the Parliament of Great Britain heretofore made, for prohibiting, reſtraining, or regulating, the Trade or Commerce of his Majeſty's Colonies and Plantations in America; but that all and every the ſaid Acts, and alſo all Acts of Parliament heretofore made concerning or reſpecting the ſaid Colonies and Plantations, ſhall be, and are hereby declared to be, in Force, within the ſaid Province of Quebec, and every Part thereof. All Acts formerly made are hereby inforced within the Province.

CAP. LXXXIX.

An Act to enable his Majeſty to allow the Adminiſtrator, with the Will annexed, or other the perſonal Repreſentative, of Sir Joſeph Jekyll Knight, deceaſed, to ſell ten thouſand Pounds South Sea Stock, Part of a Legacy given by him to the Uſe of the Sinking Fund, and to receive the Dividends due thereon, as alſo on ten thouſand Pounds Eaſt India Stock; and for applying the ſame as therein is mentioned.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS Sir Joſeph Jekyll Knight, by his laſt Will and Teſtament in Writing, bearing Date the fourth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſeven hundred and thirty-eight, bequeathed ſeveral pecuniary Legacies and Annuities for Life to ſeveral of his Relations, and directed, that the Eaſt India and South Sea Stock, which he ſhould be poſſeſſed of at the Time of his Death, ſhould not be transferred or altered by his Executor during the Life of Dame Elizabeth his Wife, but, after her Death, he gave his ſaid Eaſt India and South Sea Stock to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, Kings or Queens of England, to be applied to the Uſe of the Sinking Fund in ſuch Manner as ſhould be directed by Act of Parliament; and all the reſt and Reſidue of his Eſtate, both Real and Perſonal, he gave and deviſed unto Thomas Jekyll, John Jekyll, Joſeph Jekyll, Edward Jekyll, Richard Blackett Jekyll, Mary Jekyll, and Hannah Jekyll, the Children of John Jekyll, late of New England, deceaſed, and to Joſeph Jekyll Grocer, the Son of Thomas Jekyll, and to Nicholas Roberts, Thomas Heſter, Tryphena Baldwin, and Tryphoſa Sanders, and to their Heirs, Executors, and Adminiſtrators, as Tenants in common; and he appointed the ſaid Joſeph Jekyll, one of the Children of the ſaid John Jekyll, Executor of his Will: And whereas the ſaid Sir Joſeph Jekyll died ſoon after the Date of his ſaid Will, poſſeſſed of ten thouſand Pounds Eaſt India Stock, and ten thouſand Pounds South Sea Stock, and leaving Elizabeth Kirkham, Dame Mary Blackett, Tryphena Lovell, Thomas Jekyll the elder, Richard Mart, Francis Hill, Tryphena Ruſſell, Mary Parſons, and Tryphena Heſter (all ſince deceaſed), his Nieces and Nephews, his next of kin; and the ſaid Joſeph Jekyll, the Executor, ſoon afterwards proved the ſaid Will in the Prerogative Court of the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and the ſaid Dame Elizabeth Jekyll died ſome Time in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-five: And whereas by an Act, made in the twentieth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second (intituled, An Act to enable his Majeſty to allow to the reſiduary Legatees of Sir Joſeph Jekyll Knight, late Maſter of the Rolls, deceaſed, Part of the Legacy given by his Will, to the Uſe of the Sinking Fund), it was enacted, That it ſhould and might be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, by Warrant or Order under his or their Sign Manual, to permit the ſaid Joſeph Jekyll, the Executor, Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, to ſell ſo much of the Eaſt India and South Sea Stock, deviſed as aforeſaid, as would enable him or them to raiſe, for the Benefit of the ſaid reſiduary Legatees, the Sum of thirteen thouſand five hundred and eighty-two Pounds nine Shillings and Two-pence; to be applied by him or them in the ſame Manner as the Real and Perſonal Eſtate of the ſaid Sir Joſeph Jekyll was, by his ſaid Will, directed to be applied: And whereas, in purſuance of the ſaid recited Act, his late Majeſty did, by Warrant or Order, under his Sign Manual, impower the ſaid Joſeph Jekyll to ſell the ſaid South Sea Stock and Eaſt India Stock, and to apply thirteen thouſand five hundred and eighty-two Pounds nine Shillings and Two-pence, Part of the Money ariſing by Sale of the ſaid Stocks, for the Benefit of the reſiduary Legatees of the ſaid Sir Joſeph Jekyll, in the ſame Manner as his Real and Perſonal Eſtate

'was by his ſaid Will directed to be applied; and to pay the Remainder of the Money ariſing by ſuch 'Sale into the Exchequer, purſuant to the ſaid Will; to be applied to the ſame Uſes as the Sinking 'Fund was applicable; and thereupon the ſaid Joſeph Jekyll, ſoon afterwards, at ſeveral Times within the 'Month of October, in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-ſeven, did ſell ten thouſand 'Pounds Eaſt India Stock, then ſtanding in the Name of Sir Joſeph Jekyll, at ſeveral Prices, amounting 'together (after a Deduction of Commiſſion, and the Charges of the ſeveral Transfers), to the Sum of 'fifteen thouſand eight hundred and ſeventy-two Pounds fourteen Shillings, and applied the Sum of 'thirteen thouſand five hundred and eighty-two Pounds nine Shillings and Two-pence, Part of the ſaid 'Sum of fifteen thouſand eight hundred and ſeventy-two Pounds fourteen Shillings, for the Benefit of the 'ſaid reſiduary Legatees, according to the Direction of the ſaid recited Act of Parliament: And whereas 'the ſaid Joſeph Jekyll is dead, and Lady Anne Jekyll, Widow and Adminiſtratrix, with the Teſtamentary 'Schedule annexed, of the ſaid Joſeph Jekyll, is ſince alſo dead, after making her laſt Will and Teſta-'ment in Writing, whereof ſhe appointed certain Executors; and the ſaid Thomas Jekyll hath obtained 'Adminiſtration to the ſaid Sir Joſeph Jekyll, with his Will annexed, of his Goods unadminiſtered by 'the ſaid Joſeph Jekyll: And whereas in purſuance of an Act, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of 'his preſent Majeſty (intituled, An Act to enable the Lords of the Treaſury to diſcharge the Executors of Lady 'Anne Jekyll from a Debt due to his Majeſty for the Uſe of the Sinking Fund, upon Payment of the ſame into 'the Exchequer), the Sum of two thouſand two hundred and ninety Pounds four Shillings and Ten-pence, 'the Reſidue of the ſaid Sum of fifteen thouſand eight hundred and ſeventy-two Pounds fourteen Shil-'lings, has been paid by the Executors of the ſaid Lady Anne Jekyll into the Receipt of his Majeſty's 'Exchequer: And whereas the ſaid Sum of ten thouſand Pounds South Sea Stock is ſtill ſtanding in the 'Name of the ſaid Sir Joſeph Jekyll, and all the Dividends accrued due thereon, from Midſummer one 'thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-five (to which Time they were received by the ſaid Joſeph Jekyll), to the 'fifth Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, amounting to the Sum of ten thou-'ſand ſix hundred Pounds, ſtill remain in the Hands of the South Sea Company; and the Dividends that 'accrued due upon the ſaid ten thouſand Pounds Eaſt India Stock, from Midſummer one thouſand ſeven 'hundred and forty-five (to which Time they were alſo received by the ſaid Joſeph Jekyll), to Midſummer 'one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-ſeven (ſoon after which Time the ſaid ten thouſand Pounds Eaſt 'India Stock was ſold as aforeſaid), amounting to the Sum of one thouſand ſix hundred Pounds, ſtill 'remain in the Hands of the Eaſt India Company, none of the ſaid Sums, or any Part of them, having as 'yet been appropriated by Parliament, or applied to the Uſe of the Sinking Fund: And whereas it is 'apprehended, that the Motive to Sir Joſeph Jekyll's bequeathing this Legacy to the Publick was, the Hope 'of exciting others of Opulence to follow the Example; but, as in the Courſe of near forty Years this 'Expectation has not been anſwered in any Inſtance;' therefore, we your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament aſſembled, having taken the Premiſes into Conſideration, do moſt humbly beſeech your moſt Excellent Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame,

By Warrant under his Majeſty's Sign Manual, the Adminiſtrator may ſell 10,000 l. South Sea Sock, ſtanding in the Name of Sir Joſeph Jekyll;

That it ſhall and may be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, by Warrant or Order under his or their Sign Manual, to permit and allow the ſaid Thomas Jekyll, the Adminiſtrator, or other the perſonal Repreſentative of the ſaid Sir Joſeph Jekyll, to ſell and transfer the ſaid ten thouſand Pounds South Sea Stock, now ſtanding in the Name of the ſaid Sir Joſeph Jekyll, and to receive the Money ariſing by ſuch Sale, and to receive all Dividends due, and to grow due, on ſuch South Sea Stock; as alſo to receive all Dividends due and unreceived upon the ſaid ten thouſand Pound Eaſt India Stock, ſo ſold as aforeſaid.

Perſonal Repreſentative to transfer the Sum, and receive Dividends due.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, upon the obtaining ſuch Sign Manual, and the Inrolment thereof, as aforeſaid, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Thomas Jekyll, and other the perſonal Repreſentative of the ſaid Sir Joſeph Jekyll, to ſell and transfer the ſaid ten thouſand Pounds South Sea Stock, and to receive all Dividends due, and to grow due thereon; as alſo to receive all the Dividends due upon the ſaid ten thouſand Pounds Eaſt India Stock, ſo ſold as aforeſaid: And the South Sea Company, and the Eaſt India Company, are hereby reſpectively directed and impowered to permit ſuch Sale and Transfer of Stock, and Receipt of ſuch Dividends, as aforeſaid.

Sums to ariſe by the Sale, how to be applied.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch Sums of Money as ſhall ariſe by Sale of the ſaid ten thouſand Pounds South Sea Stock, together with all Dividends to be received as aforeſaid, as well upon the ſaid South Sea Stock as upon the ſaid Eaſt India Stock, ſhall be paid and applied by the ſaid Thomas Jekyll, his Executors or Adminiſtrators, or other the perſonal Repreſentative of the ſaid Sir Joſeph Jekyll, in Manner following (that is to ſay); That one Moiety, or Half Part thereof, ſhall be paid and applied unto and amongſt the ſeveral reſiduary Legatees named in the Will of the ſaid Sir Joſeph Jekyll, and their reſpective Executors and Adminiſtrators, in ſuch Manner as the reſiduary Eſtate of the ſaid Sir Joſeph Jekyll is by his ſaid Will directed to be applied; and that the other Moiety, or Half Part thereof, ſhall be paid and applied unto and amongſt the Executors and Adminiſtrators of the ſaid Elizabeth Kirkham, Dame Mary Blackett, Tryphena Lovell, Thomas Jekyll the elder, Richard Mart, Francis Hill, Tryphena Ruſſel, Mary Parſons, and Tryphena Heſter reſpectively, in equal Shares and Proportions.

CAP. XCI.

An Act more effectually to improve and complete the Navigation of the River Thames, weſtward of London Bridge, within the Liberties of the City of London, and to prevent any Veſſel or Barge from being moored in Taplow Mill-ſtream, in the County of Bucks.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS, by virtue of and under divers Charters, recognized and confirmed by divers Acts of Parliament, the Mayor, and Commonalty, and Citizens, of the City of London, have had and exerciſed, and ought, and have accuſtomed themſelves to have and exerciſe, the Office of Bailiff and Conſervator of the Water of Thames, to be exerciſed and occupied by the Mayor of the ſame City for the Time being, during the Time of his Mayoralty, or by his ſufficient Deputies, in, upon, and about the Water of Thames; (that is to ſay,) from the Bridge of the Town of Staines, in the County of Middleſex, and towards the Eaſt unto London Bridge, and from thence to a certain Place, called Kendall, otherwiſe Yenland, otherwiſe Yeenleet, towards the Sea, and Eaſt, and in Medway, and in the Port of the City of London aforeſaid; and upon whatſoever Bank, and upon every Shore, and upon every Wharf of the ſame Water of Thames, within the Limits and Bounds aforeſaid; and in, upon, and about all and every of them; and alſo for all the Time aforeſaid, have had and taken, and ought, and have accuſtomed themſelves to have and take, to their own proper Uſe, by the Mayor of the ſame City for the Time being, during the Time of his Mayoralty, or his ſufficient Deputies, all Wages, Rewards, Fees, and Profits, belonging to the ſame Office of Bailiff: And whereas, by an Act of Parliament, made and paſſed in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for improving and completing the Navigation of the Rivers Thames and Iſis, from the City of London to the Town of Cricklade, in the County of Wilts, certain powers were granted to the Commiſſioners thereby appointed, for preſerving and improving the Navigation of the ſaid Rivers: And whereas the ſaid Act contains a Clauſe or Proviſo, declaring, That nothing in the ſaid Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to take away any Rights, Juriſdiction, Power, or Authority of the Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of the City of London, or any other Body Politick or Corporate, or other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, or to enable the Commiſſioners to erect Weirs, Locks, Turnpikes, or Toll-gates, within the Liberties or Juriſdiction of the City of London: And whereas the Commiſſioners, in and by the ſaid Act of Parliament appointed, being reſtrained, by the ſaid Clauſe or Proviſo, from exerciſing ſome of the principal Powers and Authorities in the ſaid Act contained, between the ſaid City of London and the City-ſtone above Staines Bridge, being the firſt Part or Diſtrict of the ſaid Navigation, in and by the ſaid Act deſcribed, have not attempted the Execution of the ſaid Act within the ſaid firſt Diſtrict: And whereas the Improvement of the Navigation of the River Thames, weſtward of London Bridge, within the Liberties or Juriſdiction of the City of London, will be a Work of great publick Utility: And whereas the Mayor, and Commonalty, and Citizens, of the City of London, are willing to apply the Sum of ten thouſand Pounds (if neceſſary), out of their own Eſtates, towards carrying the ſaid Work into Execution, without laying any Toll or Duty on Perſons navigating the River Thames within the ſaid Liberties or Juriſdiction: And whereas the Powers with which the Mayor, and Commonalty, and Citizens, of the City of London, are at preſent veſted are not ſufficient to enable them effectually to improve and complete the ſaid Navigation; and it is apprehended, that the Powers granted by the ſaid Act of Parliament, made and paſſed in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, to the Commiſſioners thereby appointed, will claſh with the Powers which muſt neceſſarily be granted to the Mayor, and Commonalty, and Citizens, of the City of London, for improving and completing the Navigation of the River Thames, between the City of London and the City-ſtone above Staines Bridge: And whereas ſome further Regulation is neceſſary for removing certain Inconveniencies in another Part of the Navigation of the ſaid River;' may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That ſo much of the ſaid Act of Parliament, made and paſſed in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, as veſts the Commiſſioners thereby appointed, or in purſuance thereof appointed, or to be appointed, with any Power or Powers, Authority or Authorities, for improving and completing the Navigation of the River Thames, between the City of London and the City-ſtone above Staines Bridge aforeſaid, ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby, repealed; but ſo as not to reſtrain or prejudice ſuch Commiſſioners from, or in the Exerciſe of, any of the Powers or Authorities by the ſame Act granted, ſo far as the ſame relate to the improving and completing the Navigation of the River Thames and Iſis, from the City-ſtone above Staines Bridge to the Town of Cricklade aforeſaid.

CAP. XI.

An Act to amend an Act, made in the eleventh Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, For improving and completing the Navigation of the Rivers Thames and Iſis, from the City of London to the Town of Cricklade, in the County of Wilts.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS by an Act paſſed in the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty (intituled, An Act for the better carrying on and regulating the Navigation of the Rivers Thames and Iſis, from the City of London Weſtward, to the Town of Cricklade, in the County of Wilts), the Commiſſioners thereby appointed were, amongſt other Things, impowered to make Orders and Regulations touching the Sizes and Draughts of Water of all Boats, Barges, and other Veſſels, navigating the ſaid Rivers, and to ſettle proper Gauges on the Sides thereof, and how deep they ſhould load at all Times, and in different Seaſons of the Year, ſo as no Boat, Barge, or other Veſſel, navigating the ſaid Rivers, ſhould draw more than four Feet of Water at any Seaſon of the Year: And whereas by another Act, paſſed in the eleventh Year of his preſent Majeſty, for improving and completing the ſaid Navigation, the Commiſſioners thereby appointed were alſo (amongſt other Things) impowered to make Orders and Regulations touching the Sizes and Draughts of all Boats, Barges, and other Veſſels, navigating the ſaid Rivers, and to ſettle proper Gauges on the Sides thereof, and how deep they ſhould load at all Times, ſo as no Boat, Barge, or other Veſſel whatſoever, navigating the ſaid River, ſhould draw more than three Feet of Water, which Depth ſhould be aſcertained by a ſtraight white Line one Inch broad, extending from Head to Stern, on each Side of every Barge, Boat, or Veſſel; and every Perſon offending therein, by navigating his Boat, Barge, or Veſſel, drawing more than three Feet of Water, or not having the ſaid white Line on each Side thereof, is thereby made liable to a Penalty or Forfeiture, not more than twenty Pounds, nor leſs than five Pounds, to be levied and recovered in Manner therein mentioned: And whereas the ſaid Reſtrictions, touching the Depth of Water to be drawn by Boats, Barges, and other Veſſels, navigated upon the ſaid Rivers, have been found to be very prejudicial to the Bargemaſters, and other Perſons employed in the ſaid Navigation, and tend to enhance the Price of Carriage of the Goods, Wares, and Merchandiſes navigated thereon: And whereas the white Lines before mentioned are frequently worn out or rubbed off by unavoidable Accidents, whereby innocent Perſons become liable to the ſaid Penalty, and the Depth of Water would be better aſcertained by Pieces of Tin, Lead, or other Metal, to be affixed in different Places on each Side of ſuch Boats, Barges, and other Veſſels;' may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall, from and after the paſſing of this Act, be ſubject or liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture mentioned in the ſaid Act of the eleventh Year of his preſent Majeſty, or any other Penalty or Forfeiture whatſoever, in reſpect of the Depth of Water to be drawn by any Boat, Barge, or other Veſſel, navigated on the ſaid Rivers, in any Diſtrict beyond the Flux of the Tide, unleſs ſuch Boat, Barge, or other Veſſel, ſhall draw more than three Feet of Water, between the firſt Day of May and the firſt Day of November in any Year, or more than three Feet and eight Inches between the firſt Day of November in any Year and the firſt Day of May in the ſucceeding Year; or unleſs ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall wilfully diſobey any Order which ſhall, from Time to Time, in Scarcity of Water, be made by the Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, at any General Meeting to be held in purſuance of the ſaid Act of the eleventh Year of his preſent Majeſty, for limiting occaſionally the Draught of Water between the firſt Day of November in any Year and the firſt Day of May in the ſucceeding Year, fourteen Days Notice of ſuch Order being firſt printed in the Reading and Oxford Journals; any Thing in the ſaid two Acts of Parliament contained, or any Order or Regulation made by the Commiſſioners, in purſuance of the ſaid Acts, or either of them, to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Clauſe in Act 24 Geo. II.

and Act 11 Geo. III. recited.

The ſaid Clauſes now found prejudicial.

Regulations under this Act to be obſe concerning the Depth of Water allowed to be drawn.

II. And, for the better aſcertaining ſuch Depth of Water to be drawn by Boats, Barges, and other Veſſels navigated upon the ſaid Rivers, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That inſtead of the white Line directed by the ſaid Act of the eleventh Year of his preſent Majeſty to be had and uſed for the aſcertaining thereof, the ſame ſhall, from and after the paſſing of this Act, be aſcertained, as well by Frames, Gauges, or Regulators, to be fixed in every Diſtrict, at ſuch Places as ſhall be directed by ſeven or more Commiſſioners at any General Meeting, or by three or more Commiſſioners at any Diſtrict Meeting, to be held in purſuance of the ſaid Act of the eleventh Year of his preſent Majeſty, as by three Pieces of Tin, Lead, or other Metal, to be nailed or faſtened at proper and convenient Diſtances on each Side of every Boat, Barge, or other Veſſel, navigated on the ſaid Rivers, each of which Pieces of Tin, Lead, or other Metal, ſhall be and contain eight Inches in Length, and ſhall be placed perpendicularly, ſo as for the Bottom Parts thereof to denote the Depth of three Feet, and the Tops thereof to denote the Depth of three Feet and eight Inches, hereby allowed to be drawn by ſuch Boats, Barges, and other Veſſels, during the different Periods of Time herein before mentioned: And if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall navigate his or their Boat, Barge, or other Veſſel, not having the ſaid Pieces of Tin, Lead, or other Metal, of the Dimenſions aforeſaid, nailed or faſtened thereon, according to the Directions herein before mentioned, every ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſo offending ſhall be ſubject and liable to the ſame Penalty and Forfeiture which he or they would have been ſubject or liable to for not having the white Line on each Side of ſuch Boat, Barge, or other Veſſel, if this Act had not been made; to be recovered and levied in the

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons who hath or have navigated, or cauſed to be navigated, any Boat, Barge, or other Veſſel, drawing more than three Feet of Water, or not having the ſaid white Line on each Side thereof, before the paſſing of this Act, ſhall be ſubject or liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture in reſpect thereof, under or by virtue of the ſaid Act of the eleventh Year of his preſent Majeſty, or otherwiſe howſoever; but that all and every ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſhall be, and they are hereby indemnified from all and every Penalty and Penalties, Forfeiture and Forfeitures, by them, or any of them, incurred, by reaſon of ſuch Draught of Water having exceeded the Depth of three Feet appointed by the ſaid Act, or by reaſon of his or their not having the ſaid white Line on each Side of ſuch Boat, Barge, or other Veſſel; except Penalties and Forfeitures already paid.

How the riſing of the Water to the Injury of Lands is to be prevented.

'IV. And whereas by the ſaid Act of the eleventh Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, the Com-'miſſioners are impowered to fix a Mark or Marks at each Lock or Weir, below or above which Mark 'or Marks no Owner or Occupier of any Lock or Weir ſhall knowing or deſignedly let the Water fall 'or riſe, unleſs authoriſed ſo to do, in Manner directed by the ſaid Act: And whereas, ſince the paſſing 'of the ſaid Act, great Damages have been ſuſtained by the Owners and Proprietors of Lands and 'Grounds, occaſioned by the Owners and Occupiers of the ſeveral Locks, Weirs, Bucks, and Flood-'gates, or their Agents and Servants, neglecting to draw and keep open the ſame when the Water is 'riſen to the Gauge and Level fixed and appointed by and under the Authority of the ſaid Act;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That when and ſo often as the Water ſhall be raiſed to and be level with the High-water Marks, which ſhall, from Time to Time, be ſet and appointed by the Commiſſioners in purſuance of the ſaid Act of Parliament, the Tenants or Occupiers for the Time being of the ſeveral old Locks, Weirs, Bucks, Dams, and Flood-gates, in and upon the ſaid Rivers, or either of them, or the Perſon or Perſons who for the Time being ſhall be intruſted with the Opening and Shutting of the ſame, ſhall thereupon, with all convenient Speed, open ſuch old Locks, Weirs, Bucks, Dams, and Flood-gates, and keep open the ſame, till the Water is ſunk below the High-water Marks ſo ſet and appointed: And in caſe ſuch Tenant or Occupier, or Perſon intruſted with the Opening and Shutting of ſuch old Locks, Weirs, Bucks, Dams, or Flood-gates, ſhall neglect or refuſe to open or keep open the ſame, as aforeſaid, and ſhall be thereof convicted upon the Oath of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, before one or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for either of the Counties in which ſuch old Lock, Weir, Buck, Dam, or Flood-gate, ſhall happen to be, or before any two of the Commiſſioners appointed, or to be appointed, in or by virtue of the ſaid Act of the eleventh Year of his preſent Majeſty (ſuch Commiſſioners having firſt duly qualified themſelves under the ſaid Act), every ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſo neglecting or refuſing, and being thereof convicted, as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds; to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, of ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, or of ſuch two Commiſſioners, as aforeſaid, and to be applied and diſpoſed of for the Uſe of the ſaid Navigation.

Lock Owners ſhall not act as Commiſſioners for ſetting Water Marks.

V. And, for the preventing any Fraud or Abuſe in ſetting the ſaid Water Marks, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Owner or Proprietor, Tenant or Occupier of any old Lock, Weir, Buck, Dam, or Flood-gate, upon either of the ſaid Rivers, ſhall act as a Commiſſioner under the ſaid Acts of Parliament, or either of them, for the Purpoſe of ſetting or appointing the ſaid Water Marks, or any or either of them, under the like Penalty or Forfeiture which he or they would have been ſubject or liable to for acting under any Diſqualification contained in the ſaid Act of the eleventh Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign; and to be recovered, levied, and applied, in the ſame Manner as ſuch Penalty or Forfeiture under the ſaid laſt-mentioned Act is thereby directed to be recovered, levied, and applied, and not otherwiſe.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall be deemed, adjudged, and taken to be a Publick Act; and ſhall be judicially taken Notice of as ſuch by all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons whatſoever, without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

and for enabling the Proprietors of Lands in the North Level, Part of the ſaid Great Level, to raiſe Money to diſcharge the Proportion of the ſaid North Level in the Debts of the ſaid Corporation; and for aſcertaining and appropriating the Taxes to be laid on the ſaid North Level; and for the more effectual draining and preſerving the ſaid North Level, and divers Lands adjoining thereto, in the Manor of Crowland), ſtating (amongſt other Facts), That, at a Court of the ſaid Corporation, held the tenth of March one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety-ſeven, the ſaid Corporation declared, that the ſeveral Parts of the ſaid Great Level ſhould be diſtinguiſhed by the ſeveral Names of the North Level, Middle Level, and South Level, reſpectively, it was (amongſt other Things) enacted, That all the Money that ſhould ariſe or be produced by the Taxes on ſuch Part of the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres as lay within the ſaid North Level, and all other the Rents and Revenues ariſing and payable to the ſaid Corporation, by, from, or out of the ſaid North Level, or any Part thereof, ſhould from thenceforth be applied and diſpoſed of by the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, and their Succeſſors, in and about the ſeveral Banks and Works in the ſaid Act after mentioned; 'WHEREAS in and by an Act, made in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for puniſhing Mutiny and Deſertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, ſeveral 'Regulations are made and enacted for the better Government of the Army and their obſerving ſtrict 'Diſcipline, and for providing Quarters for the Army and Carriages on Marches and other neceſſary 'Occaſions, and inflicting Penalties on Offenders againſt the ſame Act, and for many other good Pur- 'poſes therein mentioned; but the ſame may not be ſufficient for the Forces that may be employed in his 'Majeſty's Dominions in America: And whereas, during the Continuance of the ſaid Act, there may be 'Occaſion for marching and quartering of Regiments and Companies of his Majeſty's Forces in ſeveral 'Parts of his Majeſty's Dominions in America: And whereas the Publick Houſes and Barracks in his 'Majeſty's Dominions in America may not be ſufficient to ſupply Quarters for ſuch Forces: And whereas 'it is expedient and neceſſary that Carriages and other Conveniencies upon the March of Troops in his 'Majeſty's Dominions in America ſhould be ſupplied for that Purpoſe;' be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, mons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That for and during the Continuance of this Act, and no longer, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Conſtables, Tithingmen, Magiſtrates, and other Civil Officers of Villages, Towns, Townſhips, Cities, Diſtricts, and other Places, within his Majeſty's Dominions in America, and in Default or Abſence, for any one Juſtice of the Peace inhabiting in or near any ſuch Village, Townſhip, City, Diſtrict, or Place, and for no others, and ſuch Conſtables, Tithingmen, Magiſtrates, and other Civil Officers aforeſaid, are hereby required to quarter and billet the Officers and Soldiers in his Majeſty's Service in the Barracks provided by the Colonies; and if there ſhall not be ſufficient Room in the ſaid Barracks for the Officers and Soldiers, then, and in ſuch Caſe only, to quarter and billet the Reſidue of ſuch Officers and Soldiers (for whom there ſhall not be Room in ſuch Barracks) in Inns, Livery Stables, Alehouſes, Victualling-houſes, and the Houſes of Sellers of Wine by Retail to be drank in their own Houſes or Places thereunto belonging, and all Houſes of Perſons ſelling of Rum, Brandy, Strong Waters, Cyder, or Metheglin, by Retail, to be drank in Houſes; and in caſe there ſhall not be ſufficient Room for the Officers and Soldiers in ſuch Barracks, Inns, Victualling and other Publick Alehouſes, that in ſuch and in no other Caſe, and upon no other Account, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Governor and Council of each reſpective Province in his Majeſty's Dominions in America, to authoriſe and appoint, and they are hereby directed and impowered to authoriſe and appoint, ſuch proper Perſon or Perſons as they ſhall think fit, to take, hire, and make fit, and in Default of the ſaid Governor and Council appointing and authoriſing ſuch Perſon or Perſons, or in Default of ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo appointed neglecting or refuſing to do their Duty, in that Caſe it ſhall and may be lawful for any two or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, in or near the ſaid Villages, Towns, Townſhips, Cities, Diſtricts, and other Places, and they are hereby required to take, hire, and make fit for the Reception of his Majeſty's Forces, ſuch and ſo many uninhabited Houſes, Outhouſes, Barns, or other Buildings, as ſhall be neceſſary to quarter therein the Reſidue of ſuch Officers and Soldiers for whom there ſhould not be Room in ſuch Barracks and Publick Houſes, as aforeſaid, and to put and quarter the Reſidue of ſuch Officers and Soldiers therein.
